Stallion Roster for the Region 141

In this issue

Maryland Million. Ournationonparade comes home

Bred by Jay Williamson, 5-year-old returns to home state for first time since 2019 and wins the Classic for trainer Jamie Ness. The son of Cal Nation highlights the biggest day of racing for state-sired horses. Other stars include a juvenile sweep by the stallion Blofeld, Coconut Cake's first win in nearly two years and a mild upset by Wicked Prankster in the Turf. By Joe Clancy. Page 28

West Virginia Breeders Classics. Hessica shines for Petty

Breeder/owner/trainer Kristy Petty collects Cavada win with 3-year-old filly by Juba, who shares the spotlight with "Sam Huff" Classic repeat winner Muad'dib. Trainer Jeff Runco collects three wins, and sire Fiber Sonde gets two (to up his WVBC career total to 23), on the state's big night at Charles Town. By Paul Halloran. Page 36

From Virginia with authority at Breeders' Cup

Bred in Kentucky, but raised on breeder Amy Moore's South Gate Farm in Virginia, 2-year-old Violence colt Forte storms to victory in Breeders' Cup Juvenile to solidify championship hopes. By Sean Clancy. Page 46

Pennsylvania-bred Caravel shines at Breeders' Cup

Well known in the region thanks to early wins at Penn National, Presque Isle Downs and Pimlico, Pennsylvania-bred 5-year-old mare Caravel upsets Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint for breeder Lizzie Merryman—who was at Keeneland to see it. The gray speedster gives the region its 14th win on racing's biggest stage. By Joe Clancy. Page 48

Say It Again

"I remember when we brought Crabcakes here, she was such a favorite and they loved her so much that my hands would shake when I saddled her."
Trainer Bernie Houghton, on running favorites at the Maryland Million

"We're in good shape now. You can get on the bandwagon."
Owner/breeder Chip Reed, to a handicapper, about picking (or not picking) Johnyz From Albany to win at the Maryland Million

"Don't look the gift horse in the mouth. Never look the gift horse in the mouth."
Breeder Lizzie Merryman, on the moral of the story with Breeders' Cup winner Caravel—a daughter of free broodmare Zeezee Zoomzoom

"Now we have to live up to it with the breeding program. Usually, it takes a few years before something like that happens."
Trainer Jamie Ness, breeder (with his wife Mandy) of Maryland Million Lassie winner Chickieness

"I'm booking mares from Kentucky, that's the exciting part. You don't see that too much."
Murmur Farm's Audrey Murray, on the success of stallion Blofeld

"Mostly luck, but you have to put yourself in the way of luck."
Virginia breeder Amy Moore, on whether luck or talent produced Breeders' Cup winner Forte

GO FIGURE

1 Rolls-Royce in the Laurel Park parking lot for the Maryland Million.

2 Maryland Million wins missed by jockeys Victor Carrasco and Kevin Gomez, who were injured in spills the day before. Carrasco was named on Turf Sprint winner Sky's Not Falling for trainer Mike Trombetta. Paco Lopez picked up the mount. Gomez was named on Ladies winner Coconut Cake for trainer Tim Keefe. Sheldon Russell substituted and got the win. Carrasco suffered a dislocated thumb and had surgery. Gomez fractured his collarbone.

3 Women to win National Steeplechase Association seasonal training championships (races-won) after Leslie Young put up 37 wins to claim the 2022 title by four over Keri Brion. Young joined Sanna Neilson (1998, 2005) and Hall of Famer Janet Elliot (1991) on the list.

13 Consecutive years with at least one Maryland Million winner for sire Great Notion, whose daughter Fille d'Esprit won the Distaff. Northview Stallion Station's 22-year-old is third all-time, behind Not For Love and Allen's Prospect, with 19 Maryland Million winners.

Star racemares lead way at November sales

State-bred champions Shamrock Rose (Pennsylvania) and Awesome Flower and Cathryn Sophia (Maryland) topped the Mid-Atlantic offerings at the Fasig-Tipton and Keeneland fall mixed sales in Lexington, Ky., in November.

Shamrock Rose topped all regional-breds, selling at Keeneland Nov. 7. KI Farm paid $3 million for the daughter of First Dude. In foal to Curlin, the Eclipse Award-winning female sprinter of 2018 and that year's Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Sprint-G1 winner is the dam of a yearling colt by War Front. Out of the Elusive Quality mare Slew's Quality, 7-year-old Shamrock Rose was bred by Best A Luck Farm.

Graded stakes winner Awesome Flower, dam of 2022 Haskell-G1 and Arkansas Derby-G1 winner Cyberknife (by Gun Runner), sold in foal to Gun Runner for $1.6 million to Stonestreet Farm at Fasig-Tipton Nov. 6. The 13-year-old daughter of Flower Alley out of Formalities Aside (by Awesome Again) was bred by Dr. and Mrs. Tom Bowman, Milton Higgins III and Three Chimneys Farm. Her catalog page got a boost when Cyberknife finished second in the Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile-G1 the day before the sale, which pushed his career earnings to $2,087,520.

Kentucky Oaks-G1 winner Cathryn Sophia, also in foal to Gun Runner, came 12 hips later and left the ring at $1.2 million, selling to Blandford Bloodstock. The 9-year-old daughter of Street Boss bred by the late Bob Manfuso out of his homebred Sheave (by Mineshaft) retired a millionaire in 2016 and three times has sold as a broodmare or broodmare prospect, each time for seven figures. Cathryn Sophia last went through the ring for $2.3 million in November 2017 while carrying her first foal, a Pioneerof the Nile filly named Mezcal who has earned $111,400 and is her dam's only starter.

Other November sales notes:

■ Kalypso, a Grade 1 winner last year at 3 from the first crop of Brody's Cause, sold to Katsumi Yoshida for $2.1 million at Fasig-Tipton as a broodmare prospect. Brody's Cause recently moved to the region to stand at Rodney Eckenrode's Equistar Training and Breeding in Annville, Pa.

■ Gamine, the world's most expensive sales horse this year when M.V. Magnier spent $7 million at Fasig-Tipton, last sold at the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic May sale for $1.8 million to Michael Lund Petersen, for whom she won an Eclipse Award, a Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Sprint-G1, and four other Grade 1 races. The champion is carrying her first foal (by Quality Road). Other Midlantic sales graduates selling for seven figures in November were Awesome Flower ($45,000, 2010 fall yearling) and Cathryn Sophia ($30,000, 2014 fall yearling).

■ Dan Lopez and George Chestnut's homebred 2021 Pennsylvania-bred Horse of the Year Chub Wagon sold at Fasig-Tipton on a bid of $200,000 from Barenia Bloodstock as a broodmare prospect. The eight-time stakes winner and 5-year-old daughter of Hey Chub won 12 of 15 starts and earned $669,400.

■ Miss J McKay was the region's highest-priced racing or broodmare prospect, bringing $325,000 at Keeneland. Her trainer Christophe Clement signed the ticket as agent. The Maryland-bred daughter of former Maryland sire Hangover Kid won the 2022 License Fee Stakes at Belmont, the third stakes win of her 19-start career.

■ The top weanling was Audley Farm Equine's Virginia-bred colt by Not This Time out of Foreign Affair (by Exchange Rate), purchased by Dudley Racing for $375,000 at Keeneland.

■ Four North Carolina-breds, all bred by Dr. Frank Batten, sold at Keeneland. A $14,000 weanling filly by Mo Town out of Prom Dress (by Stephen Got Even) led the way on a bid by Natalie Moreau.

■ Rowayton, a son of Into Mischief who stood at Diamond B Farm in 2021, had his first foal sell at public auction, at Keeneland, to Athgarvan Bloodstock for $120,000. The weanling colt out of Pulchar Valde (Aus), by Tapit, was bred in Pennsylvania by Brunacini Stables.

■ Ten of the 12 Mid-Atlantic-breds at Fasig-Tipton sold, for $4,825,000 (an average of $482,500). The Keeneland sale saw more than 100 regional-breds walk through the ring. Through the afternoon of the final day, 74 sold for $8,042,900 (an average of $110,177).

Make it 14

The region collected its 14th Breeders' Cup win when Caravel captured the Turf Sprint at Keeneland Nov. 5. Maryland-breds lead the way with seven wins. Pennsylvania is second with six, while New Jersey's solo win started it all.

Maryland (7 wins): Safely Kept (Sprint, 1990), Concern (Classic, 1994), Cigar (Classic, 1995), Sharing (Juvenile Fillies Turf, 2019), Knicks Go (Dirt Mile, 2020; Classic 2021), Aloha West (Sprint, 2021).

Pennsylvania (6 wins): Go for Wand (Juvenile Fillies, 1989), Tikkanen (Turf, 1994), Alphabet Soup (Classic, 1996), Finest City (Filly/Mare Sprint, 2016), Shamrock Rose (Filly/Mare Sprint, 2018), Caravel (Turf Sprint, 2022).

New Jersey (1 win): Open Mind (Juvenile Fillies, 1988).

MILESTONES

Hired: As Parx Racing's track announcer, Jessica Paquette, who called her first race at the Pennsylvania track Nov. 15. She is the only full-time, year-round female track announcer in the United States. "I am grateful for the women in the racing industry who have paved the way for my generation to work in so many different areas," said Paquette. "My hope is that I can similarly help inspire young women who may want to be part of our sport." Paquette, 37, a New England native with nearly 20 years of experience in racing, has called races at Suffolk Downs and Sam Houston Race Park. She was a racing analyst at Colonial Downs Racetrack and Sam Houston and most recently worked as the director of communications for the Thoroughbred Retirement Foundation. Prior to that, she was the vice president of marketing at Suffolk Downs in Boston. In addition to her roles in the horse racing industry, she is an advocate for equine safety and welfare and owns two retired racehorses. "We are thrilled to welcome Jessica to the Parx family," said Joe Wilson, chief operating officer for Parx. "The high regard with which she is held in our industry along with a tremendous work ethic makes her the perfect person to usher in this new era for Parx."

Added: To the 2023 Thoroughbred Makeover and National Symposium, a pilot program for a broodmare division of competition. Recently retired broodmares will compete alongside traditional Makeover entrants in all 10 offered disciplines, but will be pinned and recognized separately, competing for $10,000 in prize money. "As the Thoroughbred Makeover has made a proven impact on the population of horses retiring from racing, we've gotten an increasing call in recent years for a channel for Thoroughbred broodmares who are ready for their third career," said RRP executive director Kirsten Green. "Although the needs of this group are somewhat different from the original Makeover eligibility, the principal is still the same: horses who have received the investment of quality care and training are more likely to find lasting homes. We're excited to offer a modified division to make a contribution to that outcome." To be eligible for the pilot broodmare division, horses must: 1) be Jockey Club-registered; 2) have foaled or been bred in the 2021 breeding season or after, as reported by The Jockey Club; 3) have one lifetime start or published work; 4) since the history of each broodmare can vary, broodmares will not be subject to the 15-ride limit; 5) broodmares may not have had prior shows or competitions. The training period for all 2023 Thoroughbred Makeover horses opens Dec. 1. Trainer applications will open for drafting on Dec. 15, and will be open for submission Jan. 2-20. Accepted trainers will be announced on or before Feb. 15, and trainers can register horses at the point of application through July 31. The implementation of the new broodmare division is made possible with a grant from the ASPCA. Additional support from farms and regional breeders groups is anticipated.

Participated: Nearly 300 riders, in the Canter for a Cause at Pimlico Race Course Oct. 30. Sponsored by the Maryland Jockey Club, Canter for a Cause allows a chance to walk, trot, canter or gallop a horse or pony over the track that hosted Seabiscuit, Secretariat, War Admiral and more recent Triple Crown winners American Pharoah and Justify. "All proceeds benefit the Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance," said Georganne Hale, vice president of racing development for the MJC. "The people appreciate that they're riding on the same racetrack as some of the greatest horses in history." Riders participated in groups – Seabiscuit (walk, trot, canter and gallop), Secretariat (walk, trot and slow canter), War Admiral (walk and trot) and Ben's Cat (leadline) – and had 20-25 minutes apiece on the track. MJC outriders led the way and all participants had their picture taken in the winner's circle. "We get so many people that have either never been or come to the racetrack and have no idea that they'd ever be able to gallop over the track," Hale said. "They come out and they're smiling from ear to ear, on every possible horse you can think of."

STALLION NEWS

SKIP DICKSTEIN

Mr. Monomoy joins roster at West Virginia's Pellinor Lane

Mr. Monomoy, a graded stakes-winning half-brother to champion Monomoy Girl, moved from New York to Ronney and Nicole Brown's Pellinor Lane Farm in Charles Town, W.Va. The 5-year-old from the first crop of classic winner Palace Malice will stand for $1,500 live foal, payable when the foal stands and nurses, with special consideration to West Virginia-foaling mares.

"We're excited to have him," said Ronney Brown. "He's versatile, from a great family–there are not many out of Broodmares of the Year. He's one of them."

On the board in four of his five starts while earning $327,162, Mr. Monomoy was on the road to the Triple Crown until sidelined with an ankle injury after winning the 1⅛-mile Risen Star Stakes-G2 for Madaket Stables, Michael Dubb and Doheny Racing Stable in 2020. His prior outing was a third in the Lecomte-G3 at 1⅛6 miles. He won a Churchill Downs maiden special weight at 6½ furlongs as a 2-year-old.

Mr. Monomoy stood at Waldorf Farm in New York in 2021. He is one of six winners from as many starters for the Henny Hughes mare Drumette. His older half-sister, Monomoy Girl, was a champion at 3 and 5 after missing her 4-year-old campaign. She won 14 of 17 starts, including the Breeders' Cup Distaff-G1 twice and five other Grade 1s–the Kentucky Oaks, Acorn, Ashland, La Troienne and Coaching Club American Oaks–was never worse than second and amassed $4,776,818. Mr. Monomoy's female family traces to stakes-winning blue hen mare Lady Dulcinea, dam of champion juvenile filly Heavenly Cause, in turn the dam of longtime leading Mid-Atlantic sire Two Punch. Other descendants of Lady Dulcinea include Canadian champion turf horse Riding the River and multiple Grade 1 winning millionaire Bounding Basque.

The Browns head into the 2023 breeding without another of their stallions, Talent Search, who died this July. "He was a cool horse–I really loved him," said Nicole Brown. "Came into the barn after feeding him one day and he was gone."

The 19-year-old son of Catienus ranked among the top sires in the region since entering stud in Pennsylvania in 2010, and has sired the earners of more than $9.6 million from 10 crops to race. His stakes winners include multiple graded stakes-placed Hollywood Talent, an earner of $471,241. Talent Search moved to Pellinor Lane for 2022 and covered 17 mares.

THE RACING BIZ

The Independent Voice for Mid-Atlantic Racing and Breeding

Pimlico-Laurel project: A multipart series examines some of the issues facing the project, long considered the linchpin of Maryland racing's future, after the passing of the Racing and Community Development Act of 2020, which was to provide the financial structure and wherewithal to permit the renovation of Pimlico as a worthy home for the Preakness Stakes and the refurbishment of Laurel Park as a world-class everyday home to Maryland racing.

Point/Counterpoint: Frank Vespe and Mike Valiante look at both sides of the argument as to where the Breeders' Cup should be held each year.

Flightline's retired, and I'm not feeling too good myself: Flightline's retirement one day after the biggest victory of his brief career smacks you right in the face with the business end of racing. Vespe feels the sting.

For jockeys, end of Delaware meet means time to travel: Valiante caught up with Delaware jockeys Angel Suarez, John Hiraldo, Danny Centeno and Jaime Rodriguez to see where they were headed next.

Backtracks–Jameela, Maryland's first millionaire: Jennifer Kelly looks back at Jameela, one of the best of her generation, the first Maryland-bred millionaire and dam of Gulch.

2-year-old gelding out of Introducing (by Deputy Minister) was making his second career start.

Less than a month later, Aldrin's daughter Xanthe won for owner/trainer Gerasimos Moschonas at the West Virginia track. She had been second in her prior start two weeks earlier.

Aldrin has five starters in his first crop of 10 foals and is also the sire of Livana, third in the Keswick Stakes at Colonial Downs for breeder/owner Ray Pennington, and on the board in her first three starts.

The 10-year-old son of Malibu Moon (by A.P. Indy) out of Tap Your Heels (by Unbridled) is a winning three-quarter brother to leading sire Tapit (by A.P. Indy's son Pulpit) from the family of top sires Rubiano, Summer Bird and Relaunch. Aldrin stands at the Funkhouser family's Charles Town farm for $2,000 live foal.

• First-year sire Long River's first winner came at Laurel Park Nov. 12 with 2-year-old filly Ride the Rapids' victory over Donna's Courage, a daughter of Bourbon Courage. Both stallions stand at Grace and Louis Merryman's Anchor and Hope Farm in Port Deposit, Md.

Making her third start, Super C Racing's Ride the Rapids went off the 3-1 second choice of eight runners in the 6-furlong maiden race. She got up in the final strides.

Trained by Dale Capuano, the chestnut filly was bred by Chanceland Farm out of Get Set Go, a daughter of More Than Ready from the family of Grade 1 winner Cathryn Sophia. Super C Racing purchased her for $40,000 at the 2021 Fasig-Tipton Midlantic fall yearling sale. The filly is one of 26 foals in Long River's first crop.

Long River retired to Anchor and Hope as the last Grade/Group 1 winner for sire A.P. Indy. Bred by Darley and a son of Breeders' Cup Distaff-G1 winner Round Pond (by Awesome Again), he won five times in 27 starts and earned $770,347. A winner at 2 and New York stakes winner at 3 and 4, he campaigned the remainder of his career in Dubai, where he won the Al Maktoum Challenge Round 3-G1 at Meydan Racecourse. He also placed at 4 in the Jockey Club Gold Cup-G1 behind Tonalist.

Long River is a half-brother to two stakes horses as well as to the dam of 2022 Carter Handicap-G1 winner Speaker's Corner, from the family of European classic-winning champions Black Minnaloushe and Pennekamp, winners of the Irish and English 2000 Guineas-G1, respectively. The 12-year-old chestnut stands for $1,500.

Manchurian High

LYDIA A. WILLIAMS

He was a modest Florida-bred and $28,000 RNA at the OBS October Mixed Sale as a weanling in 2008. Ten months later, he sold as a yearling for $1,000, the ticket signed by Rey de Oros–Jose L. Ramirez. The colt's first start came in the 2010 Saratoga Special-G2. He won back-to-back renewals of Gulfstream Park's Florida Sunshine Millions Turf Stakes, ran–and won–on the flat and over jumps before retiring at age 11 with more than $500,000 earned.

The story of Manchurian High is a book full of interesting chapters, and no one is better equipped to tell it than Forrest Kelly, who owns the 14-year-old gelding with his wife, Lia.

"He's one of the most opinionated horses," Kelly said. "Everything has to be his way. The personality on him is incredible."

Greg Norman bred the chestnut son of The Daddy, winner of the 2005 Super Derby. Norman owned the stallion and the mare, the unraced Corredor's Wind, by El Corredor. Manchurian High was foaled on March 18, 2008. He and his dam were based at the Florida farm of trainer Jena Antonucci after the OBS sale when Will Phipps was shopping for prospects for Bluegrass Empire Stables. Antonucci mentioned she had some youngsters on her farm, and Phipps went to check them out.

"I loved him immediately," Phipps said. "We bought both him and his dam."

The new trainer and owner thought enough of 2-year-old Manchurian High to point him toward a Saratoga debut. When the 2010 Saratoga Special-G2 came up light, the connections chose it for the colt's first race. Phipps called it "a logical gamble." Manchurian High finished third in a four-horse field, earning a graded placing in his debut and making Corredor's Wind a stakes producer.

Manchurian High broke his maiden for Phipps and company that December, and remained in their barn until he was claimed for $30,000 by J.B. Secor and No Palla Stables at Colonial Downs in June 2011. Manchurian High won that race and headed to Secor's farm in Monkton, Md. There he caught the attention of Lilli Kurtinecz, then working with Secor.

"Lilli and I are old friends," Kelly said. "She went down to Florida with Manchurian High for J.B., and she really loved the horse. She spent a lot of time with him and wanted to buy him. J.B. and the owners offered him to her for $20,000, so she borrowed the money from her parents. And that horse ended up paying her way all across the country."

After winning twice for Secor, Manchurian High made his first start for Kurtinecz at Pimlico May 30, 2014, winning three-other-than optional claimer over tough turf veteran Talk Show Man. Manchurian High spent the rest of that year on the road. He finished ninth behind eventual Eclipse Award winner Main Sequence in the United Nations-G1 at Monmouth Park, was third in a photo in Saratoga's John's Call Stakes and was second in a starter allowance at the Spa.

Back in Maryland that September, Kurtinecz entered him in the Laurel Turf Cup. As the race approached, the trainer felt a bit apprehensive.

"The deal was always when he got sick of the flat track, he came back to me at the farm," Kelly said. "The morning of the Laurel Turf Cup, we went for a jog and I told Lilli to jump him over some oxers I had set up. I showed her the video and she said, 'Oh my God, he looks so good!' I said, 'Yeah, let's go.' I hauled him down to Laurel for her and told her to go do something else for a while. We didn't see her again until the paddock. And then he goes and wins it."

Manchurian High prevailed in a field of 13, earning $60,000 and helping Kurtinecz purchase a horse trailer. She and Manchurian High headed to Florida for a winter campaign. After a third in the W.L. McKnight Handicap-G3 Dec. 27, the trainer pegged the $100,000

Florida Sunshine Millions Turf Jan. 17, 2015, as his next start. Manchurian High won by 3¼ lengths.

"Then it was just Lilli and Manch wandering the country for a few years," Kelly said. "They went everywhere. He won the Sunshine Millions again in 2016. He bought her a house, too. She's based in Boynton Beach, Florida, now."

The horse's future was never in doubt; when his flat career was over, he would return to Kelly, whose farm is also in Monkton. Already certain of the gelding's natural ability over fences, Kelly figured racing over jumps was a natural progression.

"He's an unbelievable jumper," Kelly said. "I had prepped him myself in a point-to-point, and it was the most terrifying ride I had in my life. He's so little. Mud hit him in the face, and he hit the brakes so hard I swear to God I thought I would fall off the front of him."

On Oct. 14, 2017, with Kelly as owner and trainer, Manchurian High made his first start over hurdles at Glenwood Park in Middleburg, Va., and finished third.

After the race, Kelly asked jockey Darren Nagle what had gone wrong.

"He said the horse had been on his wrong lead the entire time, and he was trying to get him to switch," Kelly said. "I said, 'Leave him alone! You're not gonna make this horse do anything he doesn't want to do.'"

A month later at Charleston, with Nagle aboard again, they won a maiden special, and Manchurian High surpassed $500,000 in career earnings. Two months later, he entered the gate at Gulfstream for a third try at the Florida Sunshine Millions for Kurtinecz.

"He got back down there, picked his head up and said, 'Screw this.' He also got a minor tear, so we gave him a year off. After that, we couldn't get him to do anything, and he made it clear he didn't want to run over hurdles anymore."

Manchurian High retired after finishing eighth at Great Meadow May 4, 2019. He headed back to Kelly's farm with a record of 51-11-5-10 and $516,943 to his credit, nearly nine years after that first start at Saratoga.

"We use him as a lead [for younger horses]. He's fun as hell, a brilliant jumper and he loves it. He's very mischievous and very intelligent. He'll grab his bridle and hold it in his mouth so you can't put it on him. He's done it forever. If he's in a good mood and happy, he'll grab his noseband and stand there and shake it. He's fat and happy, hunts like a dream and you can put anybody on him. And he's Lia's main hunter."

Kelly shared a recent cell phone video shot during a check while out hunting. It's his view of Manchurian High's braided mane. The horse is bobbing his head, trying to take a step forward . . . doing everything but standing patiently. Kelly can be heard quietly through clenched teeth, "Stop it. Stopppppppp It!!"

"He'll live with us forever, whether he likes it or not," Kelly laughed. "He's like a brother. We both want to punch each other sometimes, but we love each other. He's stuck with me."

Tragedy hits three stars from region

Give your horse a hug. Because you never know when he or she might not be there.

The Mid-Atlantic lost three stars this fall—Pennsylvania-bred Grade 1 winner Just One Time, Pennsylvania-bred sprint star Fortheluvofbourbon and Maryland-bred stakes winner Alottahope—and their connections were reeling. The horses never met on a racetrack, but their deaths will make you wonder why anyone actually participates in this game.

"We lost her, man. I still struggle to talk about it." said co-owner/co-breeder Donny Brown about Just One Time.

"You've got to be a tough son of a gun to play this game," said Michael Pino, Fortheluvofbourbon's trainer.

"It's not easy. I've been in this business 50 years and I've never seen anything like it," said Jerry Robb, trainer of Alottahope.

The October deaths left more than empty stalls.

Just One Time was brilliant from the start. Racing for Brown and Tom McClay's Warrior's Reward partnership, she won her debut at Penn National as a 3-year-old for trainer Michael Salvaggio Jr. in May 2021. She added the Malvern Rose Stakes at Presque Isle Downs in her next start, and capped last year with back-to-back wins at Penn National including the New Start Stakes.

Then she hit it big. With new partner Commonwealth New Era Racing on board, the daughter of Not This Time joined trainer Brad Cox in Florida and won the Inside Information Stakes-G2 on the Pegasus World Cup undercard in late January at Gulfstream Park.

"The thought from people on the national scene was that we were coming in from Pennsylvania to the big stage and we better get tied on," said Brown. "We were just hoping she wouldn't get embarrassed, and she won. We thought she was good, but then we were positive she was good."

She backed it up in April at Keeneland, with a win over Bell's the One and Kimari in the Madison-G1. Third in the Grade 1 Derby City Distaff in May to push her career earnings to $583,995 with six wins in eight starts, Just One Time went to the sidelines for a break and to get over bruised feet. Lame in a hind leg at the farm, she went to the University of Pennsylvania's New Bolton Center and was diagnosed with a fracture in her pelvis. While in a sling to facilitate healing, she developed laminitis and was euthanized in mid-October.

"We did everything we could, New Bolton did everything they could, there was just no stopping the progression," said Brown. "She was doing well in the sling, she was in good spirits about it and we were optimistic. Then the laminitis hit her and within days they said we had to let her go. It's heart-wrenching. She was special."

Robb knows how Brown feels. The trainer bought Maryland-bred Alottahope privately (because half-sister Street Lute was already in the barn) and watched him win five of 11 including two stakes this year. Prepping for the Maryland Million, the 3-year-old son of Editorial worked a bullet 5 furlongs in 1:00.60 at Laurel Oct. 15. Two days later he had a fever that wouldn't come down. The earner of $328,915 died a few hours after getting to a veterinary clinic.

"They really have no idea what happened," Robb said. "The thinking is I ran him at Parx off Lasix [in the Gallant Bob-G2] and he bled and they think the stress of that caused him to kick up some Salmonella. He was fine, his bloodwork was perfect, he got a temperature and he died. They say all horses carry a bit of it and sometimes stress releases it—he's the last horse in the world I thought would have any stress."

Fortheluvofbourbon made it to the Maryland Million Sprint, and won for the seventh time in nine starts this year while lifting his career earnings to $573,120. The easy victory (at 1-2) gave him a dozen for his career, which began with a Parx maiden win in February 2020. The son of Bourbon Courage went from there to Oaklawn Park and Churchill Downs, where he was claimed for $50,000 by Pino and owner Dan Ryan. Back at Parx, Fortheluvofbourbon won twice that summer, added two more wins (including the Banjo Picker Stakes) last year and went on a tear in 2022. From April 25 through Oct. 22, the bay gelding did nothing but win—the Page McKenney Handicap, two allowance races, another Banjo Picker, the Liberty Bell and the Maryland Million Sprint.

"When you knew he was right, you knew he was going to run well," said Pino. "And if he didn't run well, you knew something wasn't quite right with him. That's the pleasure of training a horse like that, just a stone racehorse."

Due for a break from training/racing, Fortheluvofbourbon acted so good a week after the Maryland Million that Pino started to think about another start in 2022. Stable staff found the 5-year-old dead in his stall the next morning, the victim of a twisted colon.

"He'd eaten his dinner, the stall was perfectly good, everything looked fine, but he was gone," said Pino. "The barn was down, I was walking around in a daze for about a week, it's a tragedy."

Give your horse a hug for me, too. ◆

Ournationonparade stands up in Classic for breeder Williamson

By Joe Clancy

Jay Williamson remembered Parade of Colors, and liked her. The reason doesn't matter much now, but he stopped her trainer Jamie Ness along the outside rail at Laurel Park one day in the fall of 2012.

"When you're done with her, I'd like to have her," Williamson said of the $5,000 claimer on an eight-race losing streak. "If you don't have any place for her, I'll take her."

Ness was pretty blunt.

"What do you want that mare for?"

"I just like her," Williamson replied.

"Jay, you sure?"

"Yes I am."

Ness called Midwest Thoroughbreds, told the story, got the go ahead to give her away and found Williamson.

"Go to Bowie and get her, she's yours."

Ten years later, Parade of Colors' son Ournationonparade won the Maryland Million Classic for Ness, owner Happy Got Lucky Stable and an overwhelmed breeder Williamson.

"It's great," Williamson squeaked out on the way to the Laurel Park winner's circle. "Yup."

The moment, highlight of the 37th annual Jim McKay Maryland Million Day Oct. 22, was lost on no one. Williamson, a longtime Maryland Racing Commission employee in the test barn or some other important location, got a hug from Country Life Farm's Christy Holden, slaps on the back from a sea of well-wishers, shouts of congratulations from plenty of others. Even Ness, winner of 3,787 races as a trainer, felt the impact.

"He was pretty choked up and it kind of made me a little choked up," the trainer said. "She's produced winner after winner for him, which shocks me because she wasn't very fast. She had no pedigree, was running at the bottom for us. She never was a lot of horse."

She was to Williamson. He and Marshall Silverman bought her from breeder/owner/trainer Roy Lerman as a yearling, then sold her – "Marshall wanted to sell" was how Williamson put it – for $15,000 as a 2-year-old in 2010. For Clover Hill Racing and Tim Keefe, Parade of Colors won twice and finished 10th in the 2011 Hilltop Stakes before finding the claiming ranks in 2012. Ness dropped a $5,000 slip in January, won a race at that level in March and that was about it.

Re-enter Williamson, who bred the chestnut to Country Life's Cal Nation, then Freedom Child, Tritap, Cal Nation again and Mosler twice. Her six foals to race, all Maryland-bred and Maryland-sired, include five winners. Ournationonparade started out with Williamson and trainer Bernie Houghton, finishing second in his debut at Laurel in 2019. Reeves Thoroughbred Racing called with an offer Williamson couldn't turn down, though he tried.

"I'm pretty small time," Williamson said. "They're my kids and I didn't want to sell. Bernie said, 'When somebody offers you that kind of money you've got to sell.' He ran once for me and finished second and then the phone rang."

For Reeves, Ournationonparade won the 2019 Maryland Million Nursery before being sent to trainer Kathy Ritvo and a look at major 3-year-old races in 2020. He finished third in the Hutcheson Stakes in February, but didn't progress. He won an allowance in December, another the following March, moved to trainer Tom Amoss and got claimed for $40,000 at Churchill Downs in November 2021. Claimed for $32,000 out of a win at Churchill this June, Ournationonparade won for $40,000 at Horseshoe Indianapolis in August and for $50,000 at Churchill in September. Ness' owner Sean Mitchell of Happy Got Lucky Stable claimed the 5-year-old out of that race, and aimed for Maryland. It wasn't exactly an original idea – he won a five-way shake – but Ournationonparade returned to the state of his birth for the first time in three years.

"This race was on the radar before we got the horse," said Ness. "This is what we were claiming him for. I just think it was karma. I gave Jay the mare, and good things happen. They come around. Jay did the right things with her, sold the horse when he got a nice offer and here we are."

The $150,000 Classic drew a deep field of 11. Last year's winner Prendimi showed up, along with 2020 winner Monday Morning Qb, plus stakes winner Double Crown (who beat Ournationonparade in their debut in 2019) and last year's runner-up Tappin Cat. Eight of the 11 carried career earnings of more than $250,000.

Sent off as the 2-1 favorite, Ournationonparade broke from post nine in a bit of a tangle but soon found a spot in the first flight–three wide on the first turn but comfortable for Jaime Rodriguez. Monday Morning Qb set the early pace, followed by Prendimi and Vance Scholars. Still outside, Ournationonparade advanced to third on the turn, dispatched Prendimi, collared Monday Morning Qb at the quarter pole and set sail. The chestnut gelding won by 5¾ lengths as Vance Scholars edged The Poser for second after 1⅛ miles in 1:51.78.

BRITTLAN WALLS

Bred in Maryland by Jay Williamson, Ournationonparade (Cal Nation) leads everybody to the finish in the Maryland Million Classic.

Ournationonparade won for the eighth time in 25 starts and earned $82,500 to reach $374,021 for his career.

Despite all his Maryland roots, it was just his third start in the state–though that will probably change.

"He looks like a horse that could probably compete with open company around here," said Ness. "He's a Maryland-bred, we'll keep him in Maryland. He's home."

Hitting Doubles

Ness also won the $100,000 Lassie on the card, with homebred Chickieness. The 2-year-old daughter of Blofeld came in with a win and three seconds in four starts at Delaware Park and lived up to her 4-5 odds to swarm past Bosserati and Skylar's Sister in deep stretch and win by 1½ lengths for Rodriguez and co-owner Morris Kernan Jr.

Ness trained the winner's dam Chickaletta, and added her to a now 16-deep broodmare band on the farm in Chesapeake City, Md., Ness owns with his wife Mandy.

"She wasn't a superstar, but she had a lot of heart," Ness said of Chickaletta. "She had terrible knees and just kept running, and she put that attitude into her baby. That's the kind you want to breed. This is her first foal so. . . it's easy, right? When you get up at 2 o'clock in the morning and you've got to go down and check the mares, this is what it's for."

A trainer since 1999, Ness is new to the breeding side of the business and knows it's not easy. The farm gives him options with mares whose racing careers come to an end and opens another connection to racing.

SNYDER

Chickieness spies the finish line while leading the Lassie late to complete a double by her sire Blofeld.

"It's all new to me. We're getting pretty good at it now. We do the foaling, everything ourselves," he said. "It's a lot of work, very different than just training them. It's a way for me to recycle my mares that are done running. Now I have a place for them, especially if it's one I think is OK for whatever reason."

Blofeld also sired the winner of the Nursery, Johnyz From Albany, giving the Murmur Farm stallion his first two stakes winners and a sweep of the juvenile races on the card. Sent off at 4-1 in a field of 11, Johnyz From Albany broke running and stayed in front—winning by 5 lengths after 6 furlongs in 1:11.35 for owner/breeder Chip Reed and trainer Dale Capuano. The gray gelding is also a second-generation Maryland Million winner as his dam Monster Sleeping won the Ladies in 2013 and 2015 for Reed and Capuano.

Johnyz From Albany won his debut at Laurel in August, then placed in two allowance races before heading to the Nursery.

"We knew when he was yearling he was going to be something special," said Reed. "He always looked the part. He was a little rambunctious, but he calmed down and he loves to run. He's very competitive. We were shocked we got the lead that easy because there was a lot of speed in the race. We thought we'd be laying third or fourth. We told the jockey if he breaks good, go on with him. He broke like a bullet. We were very lucky and we're happy."

And a little sad. The Nursery winner is named for John Zanella, an Albany, N.Y., native who died in 2020. Brother of Reed's friend and frequent racing partner Mike, John made the All Albany football team in high school, attended Albany Business College and worked in the printing industry including a long career with the Albany Times-Union newspaper. Perhaps more importantly, he was the official host and airport pick-up driver when Reed and Mike Zanella made their annual trips to see racing at Saratoga Race Course.

"Every year he would pick us up at the airport," said Reed. "He had New York subs for us and beer and stayed with us the whole time. He died two years ago and we named this one after him."

Redemption Day

Second in the 2021 Turf Sprint, Sky's Not Falling came back from a winter break and was prepping for a spring turf start when trainer Mike Trombetta had to hit pause.

"He was in here in February and out of nowhere he just popped this really nasty shin splint that just needed time," Trombetta said of owner/breeder Larry Johnson's 4-year-old son of Seville (Ger). Stakes placed on dirt, turf and synthetic, Sky's Not Falling came back to Trombetta's barn over the summer and aimed for a return trip to the Maryland Million. The first breeze came in mid-August, and was followed by five more through mid-September, then a prep in the Laurel Dash at Pimlico Sept. 24.

"I figured it was going to be tough," Trombetta said of the timing. "We got him going in enough time to get the one race. I would have loved to have had two but there just wasn't enough time."

Seventh at Pimlico, his first start in 10 months, Sky's Not Falling entered the gate for the Turf Sprint as the second choice behind 2021 winner Grateful Bred. Winless in six starts (four seconds, all stakes) this year, the favorite lost all chance when crunched and shuffled back at the start as Sky's Not Falling broke sharply from post two, eased outside leader Boss Man J J on the turn and motored away to win by a half-length over Rock the Boat in 1:02.75 for 5½ furlongs as Paco Lopez looked for competition late.

Grateful Bred raced wide and flattened out to finish fifth.

Co-owned by Johnson and R. D. M. Stable, Sky's Not Falling became a stakes winner while capturing his fourth career win. Trombetta was quick to give credit to jockey Victor Carrasco, aboard for the winner's previous four races but injured in a fall the day before.

"He put the work in," said the trainer. "Hopefully I'll be able to make it up to him down the road. It's just bad timing and circumstances. Victor is a class act. He's a good guy. I feel for him. He's been there before, and hopefully he'll be back in a few weeks."

Sweet Victory

If 14 consecutive losses dating to New Year's Eve 2020 bothered Coconut Cake, she didn't show it. The losses including five stakes placings, six fourths and plenty of good signs for trainer Tim Keefe, who sent the 5-year-old Bandbox mare into the Ladies off a three-month freshening.

She faced nine others in the 1⅛-mile turf test, but drew plenty of attention from bettors as the 6-5 favorite. Coconut Cake didn't disappoint, rallying in the final stages to get past Double Fireball and win by a head. Sheldon Russell rode the winner, while subbing for Kevin Gomez (injured in the same spill as Carrasco).

Keefe paid $30,000 for the winner, bred by Charlie and Cynthia McGinnes, as a yearling at Fasig-Tipton Midlantic in 2018 and has been rewarded. Owned by her trainer, N R S Stable and James Chambers, Coconut Cake won her second start sprinting on the turf, and added three more on the dirt to cap her 2020 season. She lost seven times, all dirt, in 2021 but placed in the Geisha and Weather Vane stakes. Her 2022 started with more of the same, a third in the Geisha in January, a fourth in the Conniver in March and then a switch to the turf. Third in the Dahlia at a mile in April and the All Brandy going 1 1/16 miles in June, she stretched to 1⅛ miles in the Big Dreyfus and finished fourth. Back at the same distance in the Ladies, she thrived—getting up in the last, gutsy steps.

"Come on girl, get up there," Keefe replied when asked what he was thinking as the finish line loomed. "She lays it out there every time she runs. She's a hard trier. I was glad to get there with her today. Giving her that time in between, my biggest angst was . . . she hadn't run since mid-July . . . 'Have I done enough with her? I think I have.' But you never know. She's all racehorse and she'll go out there and try. Let the chips fall where they may. Obviously, she was fit enough and ready to do it."

Crowded House

When Wicked Prankster prevailed in the $125,000 Turf, owner/trainer Sam Davis and a few dozen friends and family overwhelmed the winner's circle to force the official photo to the middle of the dirt track. It was a party two years in the making.

Davis claimed the son of Mosler from Ness for $25,000 as a 2-year-old in September 2020, won a race late that year and abandoned the goal of the 2021 Turf as part of a winless 11-start campaign. This year, everything was different. Wicked

SNYDER

Sky's Not Falling (center), a son of Seville (Ger), scores in the Turf Sprint, just his second start since November 2021.

Prankster won a starter race at Laurel in April, finished third in two summer starts and–after a short break–took aim at the 1⅛-mile Turf.

Wicked Prankster needed a prep, however, and Davis scrapped the idea of a sharp workout for a 1-mile turf allowance in the condition book Oct. 16. Six days before the Maryland Million, the race was a gamble but it worked as Wicked Prankster led every step and won by a neck. Six days later, he basically did the same thing for jockey Richard Monterrey going a furlong farther, outlasting Street Copper by three-quarters of a length with Crabs N Beer a neck back in third.

"We figured if we were going to prep him for the Maryland Million then we've got to breeze him like last Saturday or Sunday," Davis said of his training schedule. "I saw the mile race, allowance going a mile, I was like, 'That's perfect. We can just breeze him in the race.'"

Pace is key for Wicked Prankster, who won for the fourth time in 24 lifetime starts (and third time in 2022).

"If you leave him alone and he gets the :48 in [for a half-mile], he will go because in the morning when he trains he just never wants to stop," said Davis. "Plus if you look at his pedigree he's got a Broken Vow mare and she's out of a Broad Brush mare. Mosler is by War Front. Mosler went sprinting and then he's got the distance on the back end. It's not a problem if he goes early because he's still got the stamina in the bloodlines to finish up. This is how he wants to run, just leave him alone."

Davis, who trains six horses at Laurel, credited the experience he gained working for trainer Gary Capuano in the 1990s and galloping for other trainers in Maryland for years. Learning was, and still is, part of the job.

"You learn what to do and what not to do," Davis said. "Everybody you learn from, whether they're good trainers or bad trainers, as long as you're keeping it in your head. You have to be like a database in your head so when you get on your own . . . I still gallop my own horses. It's well-rounded."

Davis called training hard work, but said horses such as Wicked Prankster provide plenty of rewards.

"It doesn't feel like work because you're always thinking about the next thing to do because you never get tired," he said. "Training horses is a lifestyle. Some people think it's a job, but it's a lifestyle. You have to go to bed early, you get up early, and then you have to come back in the evening and feed and all of that. It's more than a job. You have to love it and once you come through the gate you're going to love it."

Dazzling in the Distaff

Three-time stakes winner and graded-stakes placed Fille d'Esprit stood out in the $100,000 Distaff–starting as the 9-5 favorite in a field of nine–but had to work out a trip from the inside post. She scrambled a little leaving the gate, had to sit inside through the first half-mile and was fourth late on the turn while getting encouragement from Xavier Perez.

"She had me worried a little bit," said Jerry Robb, who trains the 6-year-old mare for CJI Phoenix Group and No Guts No Glory Farm.

Then she didn't. Fille d'Esprit came out from behind leader Malibu Beauty entering the stretch, switched leads and pulled clear to win by 1¼ lengths–her 11th win in 22 lifetime starts. The $55,000 payday gave her $553,381 for her career, which began with breeder Sweet Spirits Stable and trainer Christy Claggett as a 4-year-old in 2020. The bay daughter of Great Notion finished fifth in her debut for a $10,000 claiming tag, won the next time for the same price and added a second win (also for $10,000). Robb claimed her there, based mainly on a pedigree that mimics that of stable star Anna's Bandit. Both are by Great Notion and out of No Armistice mares.

For Robb, Fille d'Esprit has won nine times–everything from another $10,000 claimer to stakes at Laurel, Penn National and Colonial Downs. Perez called her all heart and wasn't worried at all on the turn.

"I was just waiting to make a run," he said. "She is like that. She doesn't care. If you ask her to run, she is going to go. I tipped out and it was game over. That's the definition of a perfect horse."

The only jockey to win on her, Perez feels connected to Fille d'Esprit–whose success comes with plenty of morning antics and pre-race activity.

"It doesn't matter if she's a little naughty in the morning, she misbehaves sometimes but I understand," he said. "I've been dealing with her for two years so we get to bond. She's got talent, she's a little goofy but she tries. She's all heart, she's just really high-strung. I get her, I understand her."

NOTES: Odds-on favorite Fortheluvofbourbon made quick work of the $100,000 Sprint, taking over from Karan's Notion in the stretch and winning by 1½ lengths for Smart Angle, and trainer Michael Pino. The win was the 5-year-old Bourbon Courage gelding's 12th in 23 starts and seventh from nine tries in 2022. . . Two starter handicaps began the day. Owner/trainer Greg Wilson won the first (on the turf) with Beltway Bob, an 8-year-old son of Baltimore Bob making his 52nd start. Bred in Maryland by Robert Gerczak, the winner found a seam late and prevailed by a head in a four-way photo. Also a Million starter handicap winner in 2020, the veteran halted an 11-race losing streak. . . Owner/trainer Joanne Shankle won the second (a 7-furlong dirt race) with The Wolfman, a 4-year-old Bandbox gelding bred by Charlie and Cynthia McGinnes. The win ran the Maryland-bred's winning streak to three. . . Mavilus, a Maryland-bred daughter of Orientate, won a 7-furlong distaff starter for owner Michael Scheffres and trainer Carlos Mancilla. Kevin Morgan bred the winner, ninth in the race in 2021 . . . After two wins by sire Blofeld, Murmur Farm's Audrey Murray capped the day with a win as an owner when Pounding Music won a distaff turf starter for trainer Linda Albert. The 5-year-old daughter of Hangover Kid hung on late to deny favorite Downtown Katie by a head while winning for the second time in 2022. ◆

Familiar New Name

Petty shines with Cavada score by homebred Hessica

By Paul Halloran. Photographs by Coady Photography

On a night to remember Sam Huff and celebrate breeders and champion horses, a new face–relatively speaking–stepped into the spotlight on the West Virginia Breeders Classics card at Charles Town Oct. 8.

Kristy Petty has been around the racetrack since she helped her sisters groom horses at Fair Hill Training Center. A longtime assistant to and partner with trainer John Casey who started training horses in her own name in 2020, Petty won the Cavada Breeders Classic with only the 67th starter under her name.

Hessica, a daughter of Taylor Mountain Farm stallion Juba, took the lead approaching the quarter pole and held on for a half-length victory in the Cavada, giving Petty her first stakes win as a trainer in one of the biggest races of the year on the Charles Town circuit.

"I'm still in shock," Petty said. "She came into the race running well off a win and she just keeps getting better."

Petty originally planned to enter Hessica, a homebred out of the Stephen Got Even mare Stefani's Surprise, in the West Virginia Department of Tourism Stakes for 3-year-old fillies, but she nominated to the Cavada just in case and decided on the tougher spot based on field size.

"There was a full field [of nine] in the fillies race and only seven for the Cavada," she said. "I thought she might have a shot and I figured I might as well go for the higher purse [$125,000 versus $75,000] and shorter field. It all worked out."

Indeed.

With regular rider Gerald Almodovar injured, Antonio Lopez picked up the mount on Hessica in an allowance race three weeks before the Cavada. Third at the top of the stretch, Lopez swung her wide, took the lead mid-stretch and cruised to an easy win.

"I gave him the same instructions for the Cavada and he rode a perfect race," said Petty.

Petty ponies her horses to the gate, so she had an up-close view of the Cavada. When she saw Hessica go by with the lead, "it's a wonder I didn't fall off," she said. "I feel very lucky."

Petty originally came to Charles Town as a jockey in 1998, her first year in a riding career that covered 12 seasons. She started out at Delaware Park, following in the footsteps of her brother, Jody, an accomplished steeplechase jockey who rode three-time Eclipse Award winner and Hall of Famer McDynamo and won a National Steeplechase Association title in 2005.

"It's in my blood," said Petty, the youngest of 10 siblings. "I always loved horses. If I couldn't work with horses I'd be lost."

In 2010 Petty rode two winners on the West Virginia Derby card at Mountaineer: Mr. Proud Allen and Down Town Allen, for owner/breeder/trainer John Casey.

"That was the highlight of my jockey career," said Petty, who won 181 races in 1,916 starts.

Down Town Allen, named for Petty and John Casey's son, Allen, earned $1 million for Casey, the son of trainer James W. Casey, and brother of James M. Casey, a long-time trainer and veterinarian.

The eldest Casey, who still comes to the barn every day at age 92, stands Juba in Charles Town at the farm he started with his late wife, Eleanor. Now managed by John Casey, Taylor Mountain Farm acquired Juba from Centennial Farms, who bought him for $250,000 as a Keeneland yearling in 2012 and raced him on the NYRA circuit and at Gulfstream with moderate success (15-3-2-3).

With three crops on the track, Juba had 20 winners from 35 starters in 2022 (through Nov. 6), good for third behind Fiber Sonde and Windsor Castle, and had two wins and a second on the Breeders Classic card.

John Casey bought Stefani's Surprise in foal to Mass Media for $5,000 at the 2011 Fasig-Tipton Midlantic December sale, resulting in Hear the Chatter, who won 11 races and $380,459 for Petty. After breeding Stefani's Surprise to Juba and losing the foal, Petty repeated the mating and ended up with Hessica.

Hessica (#4) recorded the biggest win of trainer Kristy Petty's career when the 3-year-old Juba filly took on older runners in the Cavada.

"I owe her, she doesn't owe me," Petty said of her Cavada winner, who will be given a winter freshening at the farm. "She made $100,000 [$124,255] this year. She earned a winter vacation and we'll come back and try to win the Cavada again next year."

Sounds like a plan.

Muad'dib rebounds, and repeats

David Raim's Muad'dib was a perfect 9-for-9 through his 4-year-old campaign, which included a win in the 2021 West Virginia Breeders Classic–now known as the Sam Huff West Virginia Breeders Classic. Raim and trainer Jeff Runco talked about giving the son of Fiber Sonde and the Indian Charlie mare Holy Pow Wow a chance against open company when he returned as a 5-year-old in 2022.

Some nagging physical issues necessitated a longer layoff than expected, and Muad'dib did not return to the races until July 15 when he won an allowance at Charles Town. It was time to swing for the fences.

Muad'dib was entered in the Grade 2 Charles Town Classic Aug. 26, taking on the likes of defending champion and Grade 1 winner Art Collector, multiple graded stakes winners Mind Control and Officiating, and 2022 Oaklawn Handicap-G2 winner Last Samurai. It was a big ask, but owner and trainer felt their horse deserved a shot against the big boys–and they were right.

Muad'dib chased Art Collector for 6 furlongs, took a brief lead at the three-eighths pole and, even when Bill Mott's star pulled away in the stretch, Muad'dib never stopped running and held off Mind Control to finish second by a neck.

It was a handsome $196,055 payday, but for Raim the chance to see his horse shine on the big stage was priceless.

"That was the most exciting race I've ever had, to go out of my little pond and go up against some top trainers and jockeys," said Raim. "Even after Art Collector passed him, he could have folded but he hung tough and beat some serious horses."

That race served as a perfect prep for the Sam Huff West Virginia Breeders Classic, in which Muad'dib was sent off at 1-2 odds but had to work hard for a half-length win over 54-1 longshot Martin Man, who battled him down the stretch.

"The Classic is always the big goal," said Raim, who won three races on the card after winning five last year. "Martin Man gave him all he could handle. It was closer than we expected. My heart was skipping beats."

Muad'dib charges to victory in the Sam Huff Breeders Classic, the second consecutive win in the race for the son of Fiber Sonde.

Regular rider Arnaldo Bocachica had Muad'dib fourth through 6 furlongs, behind longshot Ishihara, Hero's Man and John Casey's Allen Can Do It. Bocachica made his move and took the lead approaching the quarter pole, but Martin Man went with him and dueled to the wire.

Muad'dib added another victory to his standout career when he repeated in the Randy Funkhouser Memorial Stakes (formerly the A Huevo) Nov. 12 while eyeing a 6-year-old campaign, likely with a shorter layoff than last year.

"I think we'll keep going through the winter some," said Runco. "He hasn't run as much this year, so we're going to get a couple more in him."

As for 2023, it may be time to take this West Virginia wonder on the road.

"He's an older horse who is fairly lightly raced," Raim said. "We'll be receptive to options at other tracks. Jeff has managed this horse well. He was unequivocal about going to the Charles Town Classic. As long as the horse is healthy, we're going to take him on the road. Where we go and how big a fence we swing for, time will tell."

The allure of open company notwithstanding, winning Charles Town's signature race is always the primary goal.

"This is the race we point for with him," Raim said. "The Charles Town Classic was just the cherry on the sundae. To win this race two years in a row is great."

Classic named for a classic

The West Virginia Breeders Classics started in 1987, the brainchild of native son and NFL Hall of Famer Sam Huff. Sadly, the 2022 edition was the first since Huff passed away last November at 87.

"He worked very hard to make it more than a horse race," said Carol Holden, Huff's longtime partner and co-founder of the Classics. "There's a golf tournament, gala dinner, breakfast. It's a fun affair . . . a big deal for a small town."

Huff, a standout linebacker for West Virginia University, the New York Giants and Washington Redskins, became a Thoroughbred owner and breeder in his home state. He patterned the West Virginia Breeders Classics after the Maryland Million. The night expanded from five races with total purses of $250,000 to nine races, with purses peaking at $2 million in 2009 and now at $1 million.

Track announcer Paul Espinosa read a remembrance of Huff during this year's card and the feature race was named for him, a fitting tribute.

"After he retired, Sam became a lobbyist and helped get permanent funding for the Classics from the state," Holden said. "At the beginning, we got a $10,000 loan that had to be paid back in 10 days. We didn't even have a checkbook. I would go to the bank to get cashier's checks to pay the bills."

Sponsorships from the West Virginia Lottery and Department of Tourism helped solidify the purse structure, while Huff used his connections to the NFL and Marriott, for whom he worked in marketing, to create a festival-like atmosphere for the Classics.

"Sam gave it some star power," Holden said. "Eventually, everything fell together. He had a lot of help, but Sam was the driving force."

Charles Town Tidbits

The Raim-Runco connection wasted no time in getting on the board, as their 7-year-old gelding Penguin Power won the West Virginia Dash for Cash in the opener, his fourth consecutive Breeders Classics triumph after capturing the Onion Juice Stakes the last three years. Penguin Power, by Fiber Sonde, has won stakes at distances from 4½ furlongs to 1⅛ miles and earned $491,141 in a 30-race career. "He has done it all," Runco said. "He's a crazy-good horse. He brings it every time."

Raim's Stowe Angel closed her career on a high note, winning the Roger Ramey Breeders Classic Distaff for the second straight year. "She loves the distance [1⅛ miles]. We wanted to get one more race in her before we retire her," Runco said. "We're going to breed her [next] year."

Four races before Petty won the Cavada, John Casey took the Vincent Moscarelli Memorial with Juba's Notion, a gelding by Juba and the first foal out of Jacky's Notion. Gerald Almodovar was the winning jockey . . . Other trainer-jockey combinations to win on Classics night were: Anthony Farrior/Jose Montano (Marz Express), Javier Contreras/Wesley Ho (Seneca Rocks), Raimondo Schiano-Dicola/Denis Araujo (C R's Mandate), Jason DaCosta/Angel Diaz (Free Sailin) and John McKee/Reshawn Latchman (Silky Serena) . . . The total handle was $2,749,221, with $111,563 wagered on-track. ◆

Her Forte

Virginia breeder makes mark with first crop

Two foals. One champion.

That's how Amy Moore can summarize her foray into breeding horses. The Virginia-based owner/breeder produced two foals in her first crop. Prince of Roses, a son of Cairo Prince, fetched $55,000 as a weanling and is 0-for-3 with a second. The other? Breeders' Cup Juvenile-G1 winner Forte.

Moore watched the son of Violence lasso favorite Cave Rock inside the eighth pole at Keeneland to clinch a championship Nov. 4. Owned by Repole Stable and St. Elias Stable and trained by Todd Pletcher, Forte finished his juvenile season with four wins from five starts for $1,595,150. An Eclipse Award as champion 2-year-old is a formality.

"That is as big a thrill as you can get. Pretty amazing," Moore said after watching the win with her sister and her niece from seats just past the wire. "It's hard to describe, like an outer-body experience, like, 'Who is this person on whom fortune is shining so brightly?' It was a lot of fun. We were elated to see Forte do that, my niece taught him to eat carrots so she was proud of him."

Moore, who showed horses as a kid and galloped horses one summer for Del Carroll Sr., retired after 30 years as a D.C. attorney and wanted to move to the country. She bought a 125.9-acre farm from Susie and Dr. E.C. "Pug" Hart in November 2015. The farm is just down the road from the Locke Store, "over the mountain," in Millwood, Va. The owner of a farm, Moore knew she needed to put something on the farm. Horses seemed like a natural.

"I had grown up in the country and I always wanted to move back to the country when I retired, rather than the city," Moore said. "If you're going to live in the country and own land, you have to have something to put on the land. I had a connection with horses from my youth and I thought I would see what I could do about having a few racehorses and ultimately breeding some racehorses."

Watch this.

A year before buying her farm, Moore bought Queen Caroline, a Virginia-bred daughter of Blame, for $170,000 as a yearling in 2014. Bred by Morgan's Ford Farm, the dark bay mare won six races for $401,608 while trained by Michael Matz. She won five stakes–in open company at Indiana Grand and against Virginia-breds at Laurel Park and Pimlico–and retired to start Moore's broodmare band.

"She was the first horse of any kind that I ever owned. She was a multiple stakes winner and when I retired her, I bred her," Moore said. "I think it's all downhill from here so I'm enjoying it while it lasts. I jokingly keep saying it's not going to be like this every year. So I know this is pretty unusual."

After retiring Queen Caroline in 2018, Moore set out to produce horses for the commercial market. After a lot of research and a bit of instinct, Moore landed on Grade 1 winner Violence as a mate for Queen Caroline.

"I did have a plan which miraculously worked out. Queen Caroline ran exclusively on turf and I wanted to breed a foal which would be attractive to the commercial market," Moore said. "Since it was her first foal, I wanted to go to a proven stallion but I also wanted to go to a younger stallion and I wanted one who had both turf and dirt credentials. I was hoping to get a runner on dirt since that's what the commercial market wants but I didn't want to foreclose the turf possibility. Violence was a Grade 1 winner on the synthetic and he's a very good physical match with the mare. Tall, big shoulder, athletic. So I picked him as a mate and it worked out. Again, it's not always going to work out but it happened to work out on that occasion."

Moore sold Forte as a weanling at Keeneland November for $80,000 to Silver Hill Farm. He came back 10 months later at Keeneland September and attracted a $110,000 bid from Repole and St. Elias, as part of a buying frenzy by the high-profile owners.

The dark bay colt won his debut in May at Belmont, finished fourth in Saratoga's Sanford-G3 in July, won the Hopeful-G1 at Saratoga in September and added the Claiborne Breeders' Futurity-G1 at Keeneland leading to the Breeders' Cup triumph.

With Forte's Hopeful win providing a big update to the catalog page, Queen Caroline's second foal, a colt by Uncle Mo, earned a final bid of $850,000 from Mayberry Farm in September.

"That is a thrill, for a commercial breeder, that might have been an even bigger thrill than the Breeders' Cup," Moore said. "He was a really nice, athletic colt if I do say so myself. I think he'll be a good runner. I wish his owners every success."

Of course, this is the horse business, so with the ups comes the downs. Queen Caroline delivered a dead foal this spring and did not get in foal after that arduous delivery. She's in Kentucky waiting for an early cover.

Bred in Kentucky but raised in Virginia by breeder Amy Moore, Forte eyes up the finish line in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile.

"Mother Nature just decided she needed a year off and gave her a year off. She's down there now, we're having vets check her out–I don't think she has anything wrong," Moore said. "That was a big disappointment. We have to wait until 2024. The lows are plenty as anyone knows who has anything to do with horses."

With a goal of having six to eight mares on her South Gate Farm, Moore will stay the course, trying to produce horses for the commercial market while benefitting from the Virginia-certified program and delving deeper into the Virginia breeding program. Forte is a Kentucky-bred but was Virginia-raised. Moore has two Virginia-bred and -raised foals this year and plans to continue with that approach.

"The Virginia-certified program is what pays the bills around here. I have lots of weanling and yearling boarders on the farm to get Virginia certified," Moore said. "That program has been very beneficial to farms like mine that are at least trying to cover the costs while they do whatever else they do."

Dreaming big…

"That's right," Moore said. "That's right." ◆

Ride of Her Life

Caravel puts Merryman in Breeders' Cup winner's circle

By Joe Clancy. Photos by Coady Photography

At Fasig-Tipton Midlantic's yearling sale in 2018, Lizzie Merryman looked for a companion and future training mate for her Pennsylvania farm's only foal of 2017–a gray filly by Mizzen Mast out of the Congrats mare Zeezee Zoomzoom.

A free broodmare thanks to the eye and insistence of Kim Brette, Zeezee Zoomzoom had produced a quality foal and Merryman kept coming up empty while scanning the consignments at Timonium, Md.

"I really like this filly . . . she was raised with older horses and I need something to train with her," Merryman told her sister Ann. "But I don't know what's wrong, whether it's me or my filly at home but I don't like any of these even close to what I have."

Merryman kept looking at yearlings, and kept hearing herself say, "Are you kidding?"

She didn't buy anything.

Four years later, that Pennsylvania-bred Mizzen Mast filly–named Caravel for a fast 15th-century sailing ship–won the Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint-G1 at Keeneland. The only American-bred to win a turf race on the two-day World Championships card, Caravel outran her 43-1 odds and 13 rivals to win by a half-length over Emaraaty Ana (GB) and Creative Force (Ire) after 1:01.79 for 5½ furlongs. Favorite Golden Pal missed the break, put up little fight and finished 10th. Tyler Gaffalione rode the winner for trainer Brad Cox and the ownership group of Qatar Racing, Marc Detampel and Madaket Racing.

Merryman, Caravel's owner and trainer through her first nine starts, went along for the ride while watching at Keeneland with her daughter Liza and the owners.

"It was incredible," she said. "It was hard to believe it was actually happening. It felt like the world's longest stretch. All those Europeans were trying to run her down."

Caravel became the sixth Pennsylvania-bred to win a Breeders' Cup race, and the first since Shamrock Rose in 2018. Merryman joined her sister Katy Voss (Maryland-bred Aloha West, 2021) as a Breeders' Cup-winning breeder, as Caravel confirmed that early opinion.

Unraced at 2, she won her first three starts as a 3-year-old in summer 2020, including the Lady Erie Stakes at Presque Isle Downs, then finished third going a mile in Pimlico's Hilltop Stakes in October and closed the year by winning Presque Isle's Malvern Rose for state-bred fillies. Merryman nearly sold her in the Wanamaker's online sale that fall, but the bidding stopped at $330,000. Caravel made the pricetag look small with three stakes wins in 2021–Pimlico's The Very One, the Goldwood at Monmouth Park and Saratoga's Caress-G3. The latter was her final training start for Merryman, who sold 75 percent to Bobby Flay before the race as Caravel moved to trainer Graham Motion and bigger things.

Merryman saw it as a chance for her filly to realize her full potential, but Caravel lost her next three starts in Flay's silks in 2021–a third against males in Woodbine's Highlander-G1, a sixth in the Turf Monster-G3 at Parx and a 12th in the Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint. Sent through the ring at Fasig-Tipton's November sale, she brought $500,000 on a bid by agent Fergus Galvin.

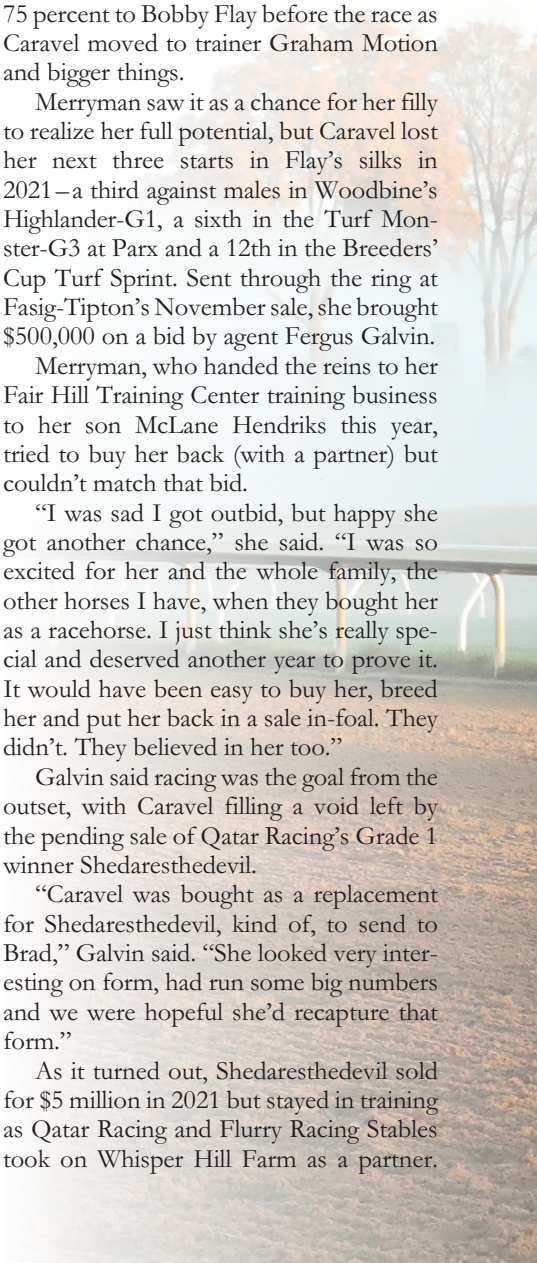
Merryman, who handed the reins to her Fair Hill Training Center training business to her son McLane Hendriks this year, tried to buy her back (with a partner) but couldn't match that bid.

"I was sad I got outbid, but happy she got another chance," she said. "I was so excited for her and the whole family, the other horses I have, when they bought her as a racehorse. I just think she's really special and deserved another year to prove it. It would have been easy to buy her, breed her and put her back in a sale in-foal. They didn't. They believed in her too."

Galvin said racing was the goal from the outset, with Caravel filling a void left by the pending sale of Qatar Racing's Grade 1 winner Shedaresthedevil.

"Caravel was bought as a replacement for Shedaresthedevil, kind of, to send to Brad," Galvin said. "She looked very interesting on form, had run some big numbers and we were hopeful she'd recapture that form."

As it turned out, Shedaresthedevil sold for $5 million in 2021 but stayed in training as Qatar Racing and Flurry Racing Stables took on Whisper Hill Farm as a partner.



Grade 1 Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint winner Caravel, bred in Pennsylvania by Lizzie Merryman, keeps English rival Emaraaty Ana at bay at the finish, returns with a jubilant Tyler Gaffalione and gallops during a misty morning at Keeneland.

Breeder Lizzie Merryman (third from right) and her daughter Liza join the winner's circle presentation at Keeneland.

Caravel only added to her tale, winning five of eight starts (all stakes) with wins coming in Turfway Park's Queen in March, the Intercontinental-G3 at Belmont Park in June, the Smart N Fancy at Saratoga in August and the Franklin-G3 at Keeneland three weeks before the Breeders' Cup. Her season wasn't without disappointment, however, as she alternated wins and losses through her first six starts.

"Seeing the evolution of her in that outfit has been really fun to watch," said Merryman. "She didn't look very good at Saratoga and was pretty lean, but they got her where she was looking incredible. She ran at Keeneland the start before, and I saw her a couple days before and she looked unbelievable. The way she won that race doesn't take anything out of a turf sprinter. People were talking about running back in three weeks [for the Breeders' Cup]. I didn't think that would bother her. I think she prefers that to breezing every week."

Galvin agreed and, like Merryman, paid credit to Cox.

"She's a filly that through the summer looks hard to keep weight on, but she just thrived in the last few weeks," said Galvin. "Brad is always thinking. He made a couple of changes in the morning, and she just really blossomed. She's as good as any turf sprinter in the country."

Entered in the Keeneland November sale before the Breeders' Cup, Caravel was on the grounds and showing to potential buyers when she was withdrawn in favor of a 2023 racing campaign.

"She's a very elegant filly and caught the attention of many prospective buyers," said Galvin. "The whole group thought long and hard, she's a very sound filly, and has another whole year of racing in front of her. We thought we'd just keep going with her. She had a great year and the way she finished off her 5-year-old year there was no reason not to keep going."

In mid-November, she was enjoying some downtime at Hunter Valley Farm, managed and co-owned by Galvin and Adrian Regan. There's talk of an attempt at Royal Ascot next summer, and a return trip to the Breeders' Cup, though Caravel was pursuing other more-pressing plans.

"We have an old nanny mare here and the two of them go out together in the paddock, a nice paddock where we can see her all day, but every time you go by she's got her head down and she's doing great," Galvin said. "She doesn't turn a hair. She enjoys her downtime and she'll have plenty of it here."

Merryman will watch it all, forever connected to a horse she no longer owns or trains, while also keeping a close eye on a growing group of relatives.

Tipsy Chatter, a winning half-sister by Bourbon Courage, was retired in 2021 and will be bred to Daredevil or Practical Joke. Multiple stakes winner Witty, a half-brother by Great Notion, was recovering from an eye injury. Two-year-old half-brother Mission Man (by Holy Boss) was looking for another start before the end of the year, and then a break. A Great Notion yearling colt was going through his early paces and getting Virginia-certified with Carl Rafter. A "beautiful" and "gorgeous" weanling Street Boss filly born in May was on the farm.

Their dam Zeezee Zoomzoom was not bred in 2022 so won't have a foal next year, but Merryman was contemplating stallion decisions—and leaning toward Triple Crown winner Justify.

"She had six foals in a row and I just thought it was a good time to give her a break," Merryman said. "She had a late foal, so it was a good time to do that. She will go to Kentucky early to be bred. If I was smart, I'd have had her in the sale right after the Breeders' Cup but maybe I'm meant to keep her."

Breeders' Cup Notes: Nagirroc, based with Motion at Fair Hill, finished third in the Juvenile Turf-G1. I'm Very Busy, bred in Pennsylvania by Glenn Brok and Mark Toothaker, finished 10th in that race after winning a Saratoga maiden and finishing second in the Pilgrim-G2 at Aqueduct . . . Maryland-bred Aloha West finished 11th in the Sprint-G1, his first start since July, and retired to stud duty at Kentucky's Mill Ridge Farm. . . New Jersey father/son Len and Jon Green, who race as D.J. Stable, won the Juvenile Fillies-G1 with Wonder Wheel. Trained by Mark Casse, the daughter of Into Mischief won for the fourth time in five starts (with a second) in 2022 . . . Malathaat, who went through her early prep work with Shadwell Farm's breaking/training division at South Carolina's Camden Training Center, closed her career with a win in the Distaff-G1 for Shadwell and trainer Todd Pletcher . . . Nobody shined brighter than Flightline on Breeders' Cup weekend, as the 4-year-old Tapit colt ran his career mark to 6-for-6 while taking the Classic-G1 for Hronis Racing, Siena Farm, Summer Wind Equine, West Point Thoroughbreds and Woodford Racing. Trained by John Sadler, Flightline was retired to a stallion career at Lane's End Farm. ◆

Double the Fun

Blofeld runners lead way with two wins at Maryland Million

By Joe Clancy

Murmur Farm's Blofeld recorded a Maryland Million double as the sire of both juvenile winners.

Maryland Million Day can be good for business around a stallion farm, and that was clearly the case this year as Murmur Farm's second-crop sire Blofeld continued to build on his career with a sweep of the day's 2-year-old races at Laurel Park Oct. 22.

Blofeld's son Johnyz From Albany started things with a knockout punch in the Nursery, leading at every call and winning by 5 lengths for owner/breeder Chip Reed and trainer Dale Capuano. The gray gelding, out of two-time Maryland Million winner Monster Sleeping, won for the second time in four starts. He won his debut, running 5 furlongs in :57.83, at Laurel Park in August, finished third in an allowance try at Pimlico in September and was second to the undefeated Recruiter at Laurel in October. Then he handled 10 rivals on Maryland Million Day. Four races later, Chickieness streaked to victory in the Lassie for breeder/trainer Jamie Ness, who co-owns the gray filly with Morris Kernan. She won for the second time in five starts–with three seconds.

Murmur owner Audrey Murray smiled through both

Great Notion has had a Maryland Million winner 13 consecutive years, after Fille d'Esprit got the most recent in the Distaff.

Mosler sired Maryland Million Turf winner Wicked Prankster.

victories while on hand for the day (she also won the finale as an owner), and was still feeling it a few weeks later.

"He's booking a lot of mares," she said in mid-November. "It helps business quite a bit. It was great. Usually, I don't book many mares until after the first of the year. Maryland is always slow booking, it's not like Kentucky. This year's a little different."

After breeding 33 mares in 2019 (his first season), 28 in 2020 and 27 in 2021, Blofeld reached 84 in 2022 thanks to a fast start with his first crop. Murray expects to hit that number again, even with a $1,000 fee increase to $5,000, in 2023. The gray son of Quality Road earned the traffic, as his first two crops have included 25 winners from 34 starters through Nov. 12. The statistics don't put him in the league of second-crop leader Gun Runner (51/128) or Practical Joke (81/162), but Blofeld and fellow Maryland sire Divining Rod (37/65) are in the top 20 nationally with comparatively tiny books of mares.

Ness and his wife Mandy bred their mare Chickaletta to Blofeld on a season Murray donated to a Delaware Certified Thoroughbred Program auction, but did his homework on a visit to Murmur.

"He came out and he looked like a good horse," said Ness. "I called my wife and said, 'I don't know what's going to happen, but he looks like something I could grab right now, take to the track and put in.' He is a good-looking horse."

Murray knows, but she's just as pleased with the other assets of her soon-to-be 11-year-old son of Quality Road.

"He was a precocious 2-year-old and people like that, he was a good racehorse and he's beautiful," she said. "Plus, he's just a nice horse. That makes it a lot easier. He hasn't changed. He's the same as he was when he got here. He's just a relaxed nice horse. He wouldn't think of hurting you."

The 2022 Maryland Million spread its stallion success among a variety of horses. Perennial state leader Great Notion kept his streak going, siring a winner for the 13th consecutive season when Fille d'Esprit captured the Distaff. The dean of Northview Stallion Station, who turns 23 in January, has sired 19 Million winners–third behind Not For Love and Allen's Prospect. Anchor and Hope Farm's Bourbon Courage picked up his first Million win when Fortheluvofbourbon landed the Sprint. Country Life Farm stallion Mosler won his second Million race when Wicked Prankster scored in the Turf.

Mosler is among the top 20 third-crop sires nationally and–like Blofeld–will get a boost from the stakes win.

"It can't hurt," said Country Life's Christy Holden. "Anything you can do to keep your stallion's name out there is good. He had a quietly good summer, and just needed another stakes winner to get back up there and get people talking about him."

Northview Stallion Station's Bandbox, who died in 2021, sired two winners–Coconut Cake and The Wolfman. Seville (Ger), who died in 2017, sired a winner in Sky's Not Falling. Former Maryland stallions Cal Nation and Hangover Kid also had winners on the day, along with Baltimore Bob.

Maryland Horse Breeders Association executive director Cricket Goodall called the result a good mix for breeders–including Jay Williamson's impactful win in the Classic as the breeder of Ournationonparade–and stallion owners alike.

"We need the big farms and big breeders and big owners to do well, and they do, but you want everyone to have a chance," she said. "With Jay, he's a dedicated breeder. He knows everything about it and he works at it. He's got a mare or two, breeds them every year. It was great. It's exactly what it's about, even though we know it's not all about the little guy.

"There was no blowout stallion farm this year, which is good for everyone too. Blofeld won two races but they spread it around. The card was amazing, the racing office did a great job on it–the Maryland stallions are doing OK."

Maryland-bred Stakes Winners

Double Crown wins Grade 2 Kelso in 42-1 upset

Double Crown surprised the racing world Oct. 29, paying $86.50 in recording his first graded stakes win in the Kelso Handicap-G2 at Aqueduct.

The 5-year-old Bourbon Courage gelding entered the 1-mile event with one win on the year from 11 starts. In his two most recent efforts, he was second in the Polynesian Stakes at Pimlico in September, then fourth in the Maryland Million Classic one week before the Kelso effort. Trainer Norman "Lynn" Cash entered him in the Kelso and in a 5½-furlong open allowance race at Delaware Park on the same day, but decided to send him to New York. He went off as by far the longest shot on the board in the six-horse contest.

Breaking alertly, Double Crown was rated by J.D. Acosta off soft fractions in the race won in recent years by the likes of Life Is Good and Uncle Mo. When asked, Double Crown went four wide in upper stretch, closed on favorite Baby Yoda and pulled away in the final sixteenth to win by 1¾ lengths in 1:37.16.

The Kelso marked the first graded stakes win for Cash, who co-owns him with Lola Cash. Later in the program, Cash sent out 8-year-old Maryland-bred Eastern Bay to finish second in the Bold Ruler Stakes-G3.

"It's amazing. Seven days earlier, we ran fourth in the Maryland Million," Cash told the NYRA press office after the win. "It was just a hair too long for him also. We thought the one-turn mile would be a good spot for him. I would rather put them in good spots and travel than stay and have mediocre or poor spots."

Cash claimed Double Crown for $40,000 at Churchill Downs in June from Reeves Thoroughbred Racing, and has won twice with him from eight starts, while earning more than $280,000. In his career, Double Crown has six wins from 24 starts for earnings of $548,265.

A winner at Laurel in his only start at 2 in September 2019, in which he beat fellow first-time starter Ournationonparade by a neck, Double Crown was purchased privately from owner Debbie Rhodes by Reeves Thoroughbred Racing. At 3, he raced at distances of 7 furlongs or less, won two stakes and placed in two graded stakes. In 2021, his only on-the-board stakes performance came in the Maryland Million Sprint when second to Air Token.

Bred by Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Bowman and Rebecca Davis, Double Crown is out of Two Columbus (by Two Punch), the dam of three winners from five foals of racing age, with Double Crown her lone stakes winner. The 18-year-old mare's unnamed yearling colt by Madefromlucky sold for $50,000 at the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic fall sale. With no reported foal in 2022 to the cover of Frosted, she was bred to Divining Rod for 2023. ❧

Mary Pearce Shaffer

Lifelong horsewoman Mary Pearce Shaffer passed away Oct. 29 at Sha-Hill Farm, her home of more than 50 years, in Parkton. She was 81.

Born in Baltimore, Shaffer briefly lived in Arizona and Atlanta in her early 20s but came back to Maryland and her roots. Her love for horses began as a young girl on her family's Clifford Farm in Monkton. Her father, Gordon, trained racehorses, and her passion with horses continued and evolved her whole life.

Married to Carl Shaffer in 1970, Mary fox hunted with the Elkridge-Harford Hunt Club, where she was a longtime member and served as honorary hunt secretary. In the 1970s and '80s, Carl and Mary would hunt with Elkridge on Monday, Wednesday and Saturday and then hunt with Mt. Carmel Hounds, a pack started by Carl, two additional days each week. Her husband died Oct. 24, 2010, at age 83.

Mary retired from hunting a few years ago but was still active with EHHC and Mt. Carmel. She worked for many years in the office of Pegasus Air Horse Transport while balancing time for horse showing and eventing.

Survivors include son Carl E. "Jay" Shaffer Jr. and his wife Kristin and grandchildren Carlie and Jason Shaffer. A celebration of life was held at the Elkridge-Harford Hunt Club Nov. 12. ❧

Second annual Sip and Win a big success

On Oct. 21 the Maryland Horse Foundation highlighted the newly finished Maryland Horse Library and Education Center in their second annual Sip and Win event. The evening started off with a private cocktail hour for donors before opening up for the live auction to directly benefit the library.

The anticipation surrounding the long-awaited library reflected in the auction participation, bringing in a generous total of $42,500. The week leading up to the live auction and Maryland Million Day, MHF also advertised their yearly online silent auction, which brought in an additional total of $10,156.

The library, which is non-lending, is open to the public Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. The official ribbon-cutting will be held Dec. 16 at noon, followed by the MHBA's annual holiday open house.

It's never too late to be a part of this exciting project! Learn more about the various ways you can support the Maryland Horse Library and Education Center at marylandhorse.com/donate.

The Jockey Club releases 2022 Report of Mares Bred statistics

Report of Mares Bred (RMB) statistics released by The Jockey Club in late October show Maryland ranks sixth among states and provinces in 2022, with 741 mares bred by 26 stallions.

Maryland stallions averaged 28.7 mares per book, the second-largest figure appearing in the nation's top-10 list, behind Kentucky. Murmur Farm's Blofeld led the way in the Mid-Atlantic region, covering 84 mares.

Northview Stallion Station's Engage was the state's leading first-year sire with 71 mares bred. Next in the top-10 were Country Life stallion Divining Rod (64), Northview stallions Irish War Cry (61), Golden Lad (56), Hoppertunity (55), Uncle Lino (50) and Great Notion (39) and Anchor & Hope Farm's Long River (35). Another Northview first-year sire, Galawi (Ire), rounded out the list with 31 bred.

Based on RMBs received through Oct. 18, 2022, the Jockey Club reports that 925 stallions bred 27,163 mares in North America in 2022. It is estimated that an additional 2,500 to 3,500 mares will be reported as bred during the 2022 season.

RMB statistics for all reported stallions in 2022 are available in the Fact Book section of the Jockey Club website.

Stallion Season Auction set for January

The Thoroughbred Breeders' Association of New Jersey (TBANJ) will conduct its annual Stallion Season Auction beginning Friday, Jan. 20 and ending Monday, Jan. 23.

The online auction is being hosted on the Starquine bidding platform at www.starquine.com. All participants must be registered with Starquine prior to bidding. Starquine offers an automatic bidding process that allows participants to enter the maximum amount they are willing to pay for a season. Starquine then keeps bidding on the buyer's behalf until the maximum amount is reached or high bidder. Each season's conditions will be posted as part of their auction page on Starquine.

All proceeds from the auction go to the TBANJ, which uses the funds for promoting the Thoroughbred breeding industry in New Jersey. Stallion seasons will be added until the auction begins on Jan. 20 and a complete list of available seasons will be listed on www.njbreds.com.

Please contact the TBANJ office at (732) 542-8880 for additional information.

President's message

Congratulations to Beth Muirhead, Nancy Shuford and Jim Chandley for their horses' wins. Wow! Beth Muirhead's mare, She'sa Tough Tiger, had a good month with two of her offspring finishing first. Kudos to this daughter of Tiger Ridge.

Let's welcome two new members – Jim McGonigle and Kendal Stokes. Jim comes to us all the way from Nevada and is a partner in NC Born and Bred with member Art Bauer. Kendal is one of our junior members. She is still in college and was one of only five chosen to participate in the 2022 Maryland Thoroughbred Career Program. She is pursuing a career in the Thoroughbred racing industry after graduation.

Please renew your membership. We need you more than ever. Your support is always appreciated. Don't forget to nominate your horses for our championship awards.

Racing Review

Double Tough Tiger (Tourist—She'sa Tough Tiger, by Tiger Ridge) won at Gulfstream Park Sept. 25 for breeder Beth Muirhead. The 4-year-old dark bay or brown gelding ran 1 1/16 miles on a good track in 1:44.56. Settled in off the pace early on while running four-wide, Double Tough Tiger made progress on the backstretch, took control at the three-eights pole, drew clear at the quarter pole to win by 5½ lengths.

Explicate (Overanalyze—Frisky Cheerleader, by Roar) won a maiden special weight at Horseshoe Indianapolis Sept. 26 for breeder Beth Muirhead. The 4-year-old chestnut filly ran 5 furlongs in :57.96. She stalked the pace from five-wide, moved six-wide in the stretch, and drew away in the final furlong to win by a half length.

Fletcher (Blofeld—Missdixieactivist, by Activist) won a maiden special weight at Laurel Park Oct. 2 for breeder and owner Jim Chandley. The 2-year-old dark bay or brown colt broke his maiden at third asking, running 1⅛ miles on a sloppy sealed track in 1:55.10. Fletcher stalked the pace from the outside and took control in the stretch to win by 1¾ lengths.

Dannyhill (Mshawish—Maggie Maggie, by Majesticperfection) won at Gulfstream Park Oct. 9 for breeder Nancy Shuford. The 4-year-old chestnut filly ran 5½ furlongs on a fast track in 1:04.53. Dannyhill pushed the pace from the two-path, gained position into the stretch, took the lead in the final furlong to win by a head.

Flat Out Flying (Flat Out—She'sa Tough Tiger, by Tiger Ridge) won at Delaware Park Oct. 14 for breeders Beth Muirhead and Frank Coniglio. The 6-year-old chestnut gelding ran 1 mile and 70 yards on a muddy sealed track in 1:42.12. Flat Out Flying raced three-wide around the first turn, settled off the pace from the outside, made a move around the far turn, grinding down his rivals down the stretch 2½ lengths.

'I Was Basically In Disbelief': Breeder Elizabeth Merryman celebrates Caravel's Breeders' Cup upset

by Maryland Jockey Club Press Office

One year after congratulating her older sister, Laurel Park-based trainer Katy Voss, on breeding a Breeders' Cup winner, Elizabeth Merryman got a turn on the receiving end. A member of one of Maryland's most prominent and successful racing families who now resides in Pennsylvania, Merryman watched with Voss from the grandstand at Keeneland as Caravel sped to a stunning 42-1 upset in the $1 million Turf Sprint-G1.

"We were all in a big group and there was a lot of cheering and hugging going on, so we didn't see much. It was all a blur," Merryman said Sunday. "It was pretty amazing. I wish I bet on her."

Caravel broke sharp and led from start to finish in the 5½-furlong Turf Sprint, returning $87.78 for her half-length decision over European shipper Emaraaty Ana. Favored Golden Pal, the defending champion, broke poorly and was never a threat in finishing 10th.

"It was incredible. When Golden Pal broke like that and then [Caravel] settled into what, for her, were relatively easy fractions, I was like, 'They're going to have trouble catching her,'" Merryman said. "I was basically in disbelief. I was just like, 'I can't believe this is going so well.'"

A 5-year-old daughter of Mizzen Mast out of the Congrats mare Zeezee Zoomzoom, Caravel made her first eight starts with Merryman as the breeder, owner and trainer. Six of those races were wins, four in stakes, including her first on the grass in the 2021 The Very One at historic Pimlico Race Course. Merryman sold a majority interest in Caravel to celebrity chef Bobby Flay following a victory in the Goldwood that June at Monmouth Park. She won the Grade 3 Caress at Saratoga in her first start for the partnership but went winless in three subsequent tries including a last-place finish in last year's Turf Sprint, beaten 9½ lengths.

"I was so excited to see her run this year in the Breeders' Cup as opposed to last year, because last year she came into it really not doing well at all and not really training well," Merryman said. "This year she just seemed like she was at the top of her game and, even though I don't own any more of her, I was so excited to see her run just because I thought she was really doing well. I was thinking the is probably way too tough and everything but I was just excited to see her compete on this stage when she's really at the top of her game. It was very cool."

Following the Breeders' Cup, Caravel fetched $500,000 at Fasig-Tipton's fall mixed sale on behalf of new owners Qatar Racing, Marc Detampel and Madaket Stables, who sent the mare to two-time Eclipse Award-winning trainer Brad Cox. Merryman and a new partner attended the sale with designs on purchasing Caravel, but were outbid.

This year Caravel has won five of eight starts, all in stakes, including the Intercontinental-G3 at Belmont Park and Franklin-G3 at Keeneland in her Breeders' Cup prep. Her most recent victory pushed her over the $1-million mark in career earnings.

"We bid on her at the sale to try to get her back and regroup her, but we didn't go high enough to buy her back," Merryman said. "I'm just really happy for the partners that have her now and the way Brad has managed her and worked to figure out her different idiosyncrasies and quirks. He's done an exceptional job of treating her as an individual even though he has such a big stable. Everything he's done with her, I can tell he treats all his horses as individuals and figures out the different things that make them tick. I just have so much respect for him as a trainer because of that. His outfit is incredible."

Zeezee Zoomzoom was in Florida when Merryman acquired her and sent the mare to her cousin, Laura McKinney, in Kentucky to be bred to turf specialist Mizzen Mast. Foaled in neighboring Oxford, Pa., by now-retired Betty Miller, Caravel was broken and raised on Merryman's farm, part of the old King's Ranch located between Coatesville and Unionville, Pa. She went unraced as a 2-year-old and was entered in a sale the fall of her 3-year-old season with Wanamaker's – the online auction company founded by Merryman's daughter, Liza Hendriks – but did not meet her $330,000 reserve.

"My cousin saw Zeezee Zoomzoom before I did. I got her, sight unseen, and shipped her to Laura. Then I booked her to Mizzen Mast, and she sent her to me in foal," Merryman said. "[Caravel] was the only foal I had that year. When she was a yearling, I went to the yearling sales and thought I'd buy her a companion to train with her and bring along. Looking at the yearlings I thought, I just like my own yearling so much I just can't raise my hand. She's going to have to go it alone."

Merryman is the youngest of six children to the late John and Katharine 'Kitty' Merryman. The oldest is Voss, who with her late life partner Bob Manfuso bred in Maryland the 2021 Breeders' Cup Sprint-G1 winner Aloha West, who was 11th in his title defense.

As a trainer, Merryman has won 158 races and more than $5.7 million in purse earnings from 1,340 starters since 2004. Her best horse, Roadhog, ran in the Maryland Million Turf five consecutive years, winning in 2012 and 2013 and finishing second in 2015 and third in 2014.

Caravel's 2021 Caress was Merryman's first graded-stakes win as a trainer before subsequently being moved to Graham Motion, her neighbor at the Fair Hill Training Center in Elkton, Md., for the duration of last year. Merryman has continued to follow Caravel's career.

"She's very talented. We always thought very highly of her. She was a beautiful baby. She was great to break. As a yearling she was just so smart and clever and a lovely mover," Merryman said. "You never think you've bred a Breeders' Cup winner, but I was pretty excited about her."

A few words from the Executive Secretary

The 2022 Breeders Cup could not have gone better for Pennsylvania. Not only did the Elizabeth Merryman-bred Caravel win the Turf Sprint against boys but she was the only non-Kentucky and non-European-bred horse to win any Breeders Cup race. Caravel joined the ranks of other recent Pa-Bred greats like Shamrock Rose and Finest City. Congrats to all her connections!!

In 2023 the PA-Bred PA-Sired 2yo Series will be expanded and run in three legs, SIX STAKES, at 5½ furlongs for $100,000, 6½ furlongs for $150,000, and a flat mile for $200,000. Each leg will consist of a 2yo race and a 2yo filly race. Don't forget about the $50,000 trainer bonus for the top three point-earning horses. Nomination forms for the 2023 series are only $200 if paid by Dec. 31 of the participants yearling year. You can go to pabred.com under 'Featured' and print the nomination form.

Penn National Race Course, HBPA, and PHBA was to offer two introductory starter allowances with purses of $75,000 on the Friday, Nov. 25 card. The conditions were for 3&up and 3&up F&M who had run for a tag of $7,500 or less within the past 18 months at 6 furlongs. Based on interest level for these races, there could be the possibility of a PA-Bred Claiming Crown Day in 2023.

Please remember, for the foal crop of 2023, broodmares must be in the state by Dec. 1, 2022, or within 14 days of a public sale (within 60 days of a sale outside the U.S.) or bred back to a PA-Sire. We ask that you submit all broodmare domicile forms online. The new form is now available for use by going to pabred.com under forms. As usual, please contact our office with any questions you may have. Pennsylvania is the only place to Breed & Race and remember, you ain't seen nothing yet! Go PA!!

OFFICIAL NEWSLETTER DECEMBER 2022

Racing Across the Nation

Between Sept. 24 and Oct. 18, six horses who went through the breaking process at South Carolina training centers made their way to the winner's circle following stakes races.

That's Right, a product of James Layden's program in Ehrhardt, broke on top and never looked back in the Turf Monster Stakes-G3 at Parx Racing Sept. 24, crossing the finish line 1½ lengths in front. While That's Right didn't break his maiden until his seventh career start, he now has three wins, including two stakes, in four starts since. He has earned $318,400.

Finest Work made her first stakes appearance in her 11th start and it was a winning one when capturing the John Hettinger Stakes Sept. 30 in New York. The Belmont fall meet was being held at Aqueduct this year due to a construction project going on at Belmont. Fifth for the first three-quarters of a mile, Finest Work came five-wide into the stretch, took the lead nearing the eighth pole and hit the wire a half length in front. Finest Work has spent time in South Carolina with both James Layden and Travis Durr at his Travis Durr Training Center in St. Matthews. She has five wins, two seconds and two third-place finishes in 11 career starts.

King Ice, a 2-year-old who went through Franklin "Goree" Smith's program at the Elloree Training Center, was 11th, having only one beat early on, before working his way through the field and proving best in the Indiana Futurity at Horseshoe Indianapolis Oct. 5, winning by 1¾ lengths. King Ice had broken his maiden only a week before this stakes win.

Another Elloree Training Center graduate, Manny Wah, captured the Phoenix Stakes-G2 at Keeneland Oct. 7. Manny Wah trailed the field for the first half-mile. He came up between horse and, while still in traffic, put in a determined effort to get to the wire first by a neck. Manny Wah has made 34 career starts, an accomplishment you do not see often in this day and age. He has earned $791,355.

Private Creed stamped himself as one of the best 2-year-old turf sprinters in the nation Oct. 9, gaining his second stakes victory in a row winning the Indian Summer at Keeneland. He rated behind horses before coming four-wide into the stretch. He took the lead inside the sixteenth-pole and crossed the wire three-quarters of a length in front. Private Creed went through the breaking process in Marcus and Crystal Ryan's program in Aiken. He was sold at the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic Two-Year-Old Sale at Timonium under the Ryans Mason Springs banner for $155,000. He has three wins in four career starts.

Beren continues to shine. He won his seventh stakes when proving best in the Jump Start Stakes at Parx Oct. 18. Beren broke alertly from the inside and set the fractions throughout. While he fought off challengers, he proved much the best in the stretch, winning by 3¼ lengths. Beren is a graduate of Randy and Kala Rentz's training center in Ehrhardt.

South Carolina TOBA holds wine tasting

On Oct. 16 the SCTOBA held a wine tasting event in Camden. SCTOBA board member Rich Scelfo and Mark Raymond put together a first-class presentation. Delicious hors d'ouevres were provided by Aberdeen Catery. The National Steeplechase Museum is a perfect place to host an event such as this.

The turnout was enthusiastic. This is a good way to spread the word of what the South Carolina Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders Association is all about and what our goals are for the future.

BETSY GREENWAY

Mark Raymond and Rich Scelfo (glass on) present fine wines!

South Carolina Equine Advancement Act

The South Carolina equine industry committee held a reception honoring South Carolina's Senate Majority Leader Shane Massey Oct. 18 in Aiken. The focus of this movement has been to help coordinate input into the assessment of the state's horse economy and promote legislation known as the South Carolina Equine Advancement Act. The ultimate goal is to promote South Carolina's horses and horse-driven businesses, sports, and recreation.

CHURCHILL DOWNS TAKES OVER OWNERSHIP OF COLONIAL DOWNS ON NOVEMBER 1

Churchill Downs Inc. (CDI) is officially the new owner of Colonial Downs Racetrack in New Kent and six Rosie's Gaming Emporiums currently in operation across Virginia which feature a combined 2,600 Historical Horse Racing (HHR) terminals.

The deal, which was announced in February, closed November 1 and is part of an overall $2.75 billion purchase of Peninsula Pacific Entertainment's assets which also includes hotel/casino resorts in Waterloo, New York and Sioux City, Iowa, and the rights to develop up to five more Off Track betting centers in Virginia including two currently under construction in Emporia and another $400 million HHR gaming resort in Dumfries. Existing Rosie's sites are located in New Kent, Richmond, Hampton, Vinton, Collinsville and a smaller 150 machine version in Dumfries. Also included in the deal are rights to a proposed casino that Peninsula Pacific and Maryland-based Urban One have sought to develop in Richmond.

CDI plans to increase the number of race days at Colonial Downs from the 26 it ran this past summer. A request for 2023 dates is expected to be heard at the December 14 meeting of the Virginia Racing Commission.

Bill Carstanjen, CDI CEO, gave a presentation at the April VRC meeting. "Racing is in our lifeblood," he stated. "We know alot about it. For us, the only disappointment I have ever had about Virginia is we saw Virginia coming and we so much wanted to be a part of it, but we didn't have that opportunity when it first started. It went to Revolutionary Racing, then to Peninsula, but we stayed after it. I just think this is a jurisdiction that has so much opportunity, such a rich background in racing."

FORTE'S BIG WINS PROVIDE VIRGINIA BREEDER AMY MOORE WITH BIG THRILLS

Virginia-based owner/breeder Amy Moore has been riding high recently, taking pride in the success of a colt she bred that reached the winners circle four times in five starts --- including three consecutive Grade I stakes over a two-month period.

Forte, a 2-year-old Kentucky-bred by Violence out of Moore's multiple stakes winning Queen Caroline, has had a stunning freshman campaign. After capturing his career bow May 27 at Belmont by an impressive 7¼ lengths, he took third in the Grade 3 Sanford Stakes six weeks later. He rolled off three straight then including a pair at Keeneland --- capped off most recently with the $1 million FanDuel Breeders' Cup Juvenile November 4 and the Claiborne Breeders' Futurity October 8. Those were preceded by a three-length win in the Hopeful Stakes September 5 at Saratoga.

"Forte's breeding was a miracle plan that worked out," said Moore, whose 126-acre Southgate Farm is located in Millwood, Virginia between Upperville and Winchester. "His dam is Queen Caroline, which is a Virgnia-bred and the first horse I ever owned."

Moore purchased Queen Caroline as a weanling at the Keeneland September 2014 sale and got 20 starts from her and earnings of $402,608. Bred at Morgan's Ford Farm --- just twelve miles from Southgate Farm --- she won three Virginia-bred stakes including the Brookmeade and the Nellie Mae Cox twice. The daughter of Blame also got her picture taken in the Indiana Grand and TaWee Stakes.

"When I retired her from racing, I wanted to breed her to a stallion that had both turf and dirt credentials which is what the commercial market wants," she said. "Violence was a Grade I winner on synthetic which was appealing and is by Medaglia d'Oro who can produce good runners on dirt and turf. I thought he would be a good stallion to thread the needle between a turf mare and a dirt runner. He's physically similar to Queen Caroline. He is a good looking, tall and athletic horse and was hoping he'd add a little more speed to the equation."

"I have so much pride in watching Forte compete" added Moore. "I'm very proud of the way he developed as a 2-year-old. I was especially happy when he was bought by his current owners because I knew he would get the best chance possible to succeed on the track with them. I hope he runs just as big as a 3-year-old."

Moore, who got into racing and breeding after a 30-year law career in Washington, DC ended, currently keeps between 20-25 horses at her farm. She has a number of boarders now that are in the lucrative Virginia-Certified residency program along with a few retired sport horses. "I'd like to keep a filly to raise myself," said Moore, who has several in training, "But that doesn't always work out. I've bred seven foals and have gotten seven colts. The colts have to go to the sales because I can't really raise colts. I always have to plan matings with the commercial market in mind because I don't know what I'm going to get -- fillies or colts."

Once her years as a lawyer were over, Moore wanted to get some land in the country and avoid having neighbors on top of her. She purchased a turnkey operation of sorts from Pug & Susie Hart.

"When you buy a farm, you need something to put on that farm, and horses were the natural thing," she said. "Transitioning to the country was easy. I loved it from day one. There is a steep learning curve on how to manage a farm though. I rode horses when I was younger but had little to do with tractors, weed eaters and everything else that go with keeping a farm running. The Hart's had the farm set up beautifully for everything I wanted to do. I realize that every day and am so grateful to them for how they planned it out so well."

2021 VIRGINIA YEARLING FUTURITY GRAND CHAMP AUTHORS SOLID FRESHMAN RACING CAMPAIGN

Leave No Trace, who was Grand Champion of the 2021 Virginia Breeders Fund Yearling Futurity, continued a solid, young racing career November 4, taking second place in the Grade 1, $2 million Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies at Keeneland after being sent off at odds of 25-1. After the runner-up finish, her bankroll stood just shy of $600,000.

Her other three starts have been impressive as well. She collected a pair of wins at Saratoga in the Grade 1 Spinaway Stakes and earlier in a maiden special weight, and was third in the Grade 1 Frizette at Belmont October 2.

Djuric Sporthorses LLC, Anna M. Simms DVM and Patrick Nuesch co-owned the Virginia-Certified bay filly by Outwork at the time of last September's Futurity. The group purchased her for $8,000 at the '21 Fasig-Tipton Yearling sale in February then sold her for $40,000 at the Timonium Sale last October. She won the Certified-Fillies category at the Warrenton Horse Show Grounds then advanced to Grand Champion status. The talented filly is out of Tanguerray by Good Journey.

"We went to the Fasig-Tipton sale specifically looking for a horse to keep our homebred company for a while," said Stefica Djuric of Djuric Sporthorses. "We looked at the video of the Outwork filly on their website and noticed she had a beautiful body and nice long legs and decided to create a partnership to buy her. Once she got to the farm in Blacksburg, she kept growing and we could see her looking better and better over the summer."

"The plan was to sell a Kentucky-bred at the Maryland sale," said Stevica's wife Andi. "We thought there would be a good market for that and we did get a good price for the filly."

WVTBA Hall of Fame Class of 2022

By Jeff Gilleas

An event so fabled there's even a song that's sentimentally associated with it (Country Roads), the ritualized nature of the Breeders Classics continued its tradition of robust stakes races for West Virginia-bred or sired horses Oct. 8. And after the sixth race, more celebration ensued with the presentation of the inaugural class of the West Virginia Thoroughbred Breeders Association Hall of Fame.

Whether an avid fan, casual spectator, owner, trainer or breeder, the lasting history of horse racing in West Virginia has witnessed striking upsets, feats of courage and electrifying finishes by indubitable giants of the sport.

With the backdrop of a swirling American flag, clear skies and moderate fall temperatures made audience proximity to the observance pleasing as Ken Lowe, Charlie McIntosh, John Funkhouser, Clissy Funkhouser, Joe Funkhouser, Judy Grams, Dennis Finger, Juliana Woodson and Ted Black addressed the importance of honoring the past to preserve the future.

The Hall of Fame is limited to horses bred in West Virginia who have been retired from racing for at least five years.

Ted Black, a journalist who has logged more miles than Phar Lap while covering his beloved sport of horse racing, John Funkhouser, president of the WVTBA, and Judy Grams, enthusiastic animal lover and devoted horsewoman, were the constructive minds behind the concept of the HOF.

Ten years ago, Black, Frank Vespe, Cricket Goodall and Cindy Deubler were instrumental in a similar project in Maryland.

Said Black, "This is an idea that gained momentum here exponentially, as WVTBA board members, Director of Racing Charlie McIntosh and Penn Entertainment recognized the HOF as the ultimate tribute to deserving horses, and a unique generational way to engage fans. Some very good horses punched their ticket, gaining admission to the initial Hall of Fame class."

Horses can do just about everything but talk, so I'll be handling their commendation and highlighting their dossiers.

AFTERNOON DEELITES

By Private Term out of Intimate Girl, Afternoon Deelites was owned and bred by Blue Seas Music Inc. (Burt Bacharach) and primarily used California as his happy hunting grounds during a brilliant career.

Undefeated at 2, including the Grade 1 Hollywood Futurity, he competed in the 1995 Kentucky Derby (8th place), and close out his 3-year-old season with a dramatic win in the Malibu Stakes-G1, running a 120 Equibase speed figure.

He was graded winner each of his three years of competion and earned over $1 million in 12 starts for trainer Richard Mandella. His final race was in the Metropolitan Handicap-G1 carrying top weight of 123 pounds and setting the early fractions, only to succumb in the final strides to Honour and Glory (110 pounds).

CONFUCIUS SAY

A homebred for O'Sullivan Farms, the millionaire son of Eastover Court and Mo Chun embodied the genetic blueprint for success at the Funkhouser family farm.

The combination of versatility, strength and staying power were his wheelhouse, as the long-striding gelding amassed a total of four Breeders Classics victories spanning 2000-2009.

Trained by George Yetsook, Confucius Say won from 4½ furlongs to 1⅛ miles, winning the featured West Virginia Breeders Classic three times.

At their peak, regular jockey Larry Reynolds and team Confucius Say were combined celebrities in a sport whose roots desire hero-worship.

DOWN TOWN ALLEN

The lone female in the inaugural class, Down Town Allen won at least one stakes race in six consecutive seasons of competition.

The daughter of Windsor Castle out of Like Down Town is an inspirational story of heart, family, and the pursuit of dreams.

The millionaire was owned, trained and bred by John A. Casey, and predominantly ridden throughout her career by Matt McGowan, who experienced a special horse can be the answer to your prayers.

The legend of Down Town Allen will live forever in the hearts and minds of John Casey's partner, Kristy Petty and their son, Allen, and all her fans.

ONION JUICE

Winner of the first running of the West Virginia Breeders Classic in 1987, Onion Juice was the prime example of a racehorse that was given to long service, lived through many hardships, and possessed a specific knowledge of performing on the biggest stage.

Well known in the Mid-Atlantic region, the son of Quartermaster out of Menage raced at Charles Town, Keystone, Pimlico, Monmouth Park, Atlantic City, Timonium, Laurel Park, Bowie, Penn National and Philadelphia Park.

Owned and bred by Donald Wilson and Charles Woodson Jr. and trained by Charles "Buck" Woodson Jr., the "Juice" won 27 times in his illustrious 65-start career.

RUSSELL ROAD

Like many Hall of Fame inductees, Russell Road exhibited class, scope and attitude, often snatching victory from the jaws of defeat.

A 31-time winner out of 62 lifetime efforts, and earner of over $2 million, the horse whose body appeared to be chiseled from granite was bred by Robert Lloyd, owned by Mark Russell and trained by James W. Casey. Seven times he competed in the West Virginia Breeders Classic, winning three times and finishing second in two others.

A gelded son of Wheaton out of the mare Roberta Grump, Russell Road used the preferential attention afforded him by Russell and groom Daisy Tobin to accomplish the matchless task of 22 stakes wins.

SOUL OF THE MATTER

Soul of the Matter was a homebred for Burt Bacharach's Blue Seas Music and was trained by Richard Mandella.

His biggest win came in the 1994 Super Derby (then Grade I), but he's best known for his final start, a heroic half-length defeat to a paragon of Thoroughbred racing, Cigar, in the inaugural Dubai World Cup.

The son of Private Terms out of Soul Light earned $2,302,818, making him the richest West Virginia-bred of all time.

Soul of the Matter stood much of his stud career in Japan, and passed away in Montana, where he had been retired. He was 27.

What constitutes a great horse?

Obviously performance, effort and competitiveness would be inherent traits in all our worthy candidates.

The ability to succeed and deny adversity in the pursuit of excellence.

Unfortunately, I didn't get to see Onion Juice, Afternoon Deelites or Soul of the Matter in the flesh, however I had a front row seat for Confucius Say, Russell Road and Down Town Allen.

Their enshrinement to the Hall of Fame is specially grand.

All of this year's candidates expressed personality and longevity making them master professionals at rendering a bounty of vivid memories.

Meet the dream team:

Five-time champion jockey Paddy Young, and newly crowned leading trainer and syndicate-specialist Leslie Falini Young

By Betsy Burke Parker

Paddy Young doesn't remember much about the racing fall that could have taken his life five years ago, but he has little mental snapshots from the 2017 Radnor meet.

Wife Leslie says it seems sometimes like he can conjure memories of running down to, up and over the 16th fence in the timber stake that took him from the edge of breaking 200 sanctioned wins to breaking his neck.

Other days, there's no recall at all.

"That's the new normal," says the Unionville, Pennsylvania-based trainer. "It's where we are right now. We were a team then, we're a team now, but it's all different.

"It's been a long, hard road," Leslie adds, stressing that the steeplechase community – friends, family, even strangers – showed their true colors in the weeks, months and years since the traumatic brain injury that took Paddy Young from five-time champion to practically helpless. He was in the hospital for months, in therapy for years and even now requires help and supervision because his decision-making process remains compromised.

Leslie, his kids and their farm life provide the stable touchstones that give him a reference point. "We're all in this together," she says.

Trace the winding paths of Paddy and Leslie Young to find out how he "decided to try – on a flyer" the American steeplechase circuit 19 years ago – and how he just never left, and how she "just could not resist" jumping back in to the jump game after college.

How'd we get here: Paddy Young

Born the son of farmer and permit-holder Leo Young, Paddy Young, 46, was groomed early for a career in the saddle. There were good horses to ride and thousands of open acres to explore around the family farm in Banbridge, County Down, southwest of Belfast in Northern Ireland.

"My biggest influence in my career was my dad, as I admired his horsemanship and he got me started in racing," Young told an Irish racing paper. English trainer

"Henrietta Knight helped me lots schooling a lot of her horses. Mick Fitzgerald was my idol."

Though he could have gone into hunting or show jumping, Paddy took his dad's lead, riding family horses as an amateur. He moved to Nicky Henderson's in Lambourn, England, then spent five formative years with Knight in Oxfordshire near Wantage.

There, he schooled hundreds, maybe thousands, of horses, including future Cheltenham Gold Cup star Best Mate. His brother, Jeremy, ended up in England, too, assistant to trainer Paul Nicholls before setting up his own yard in Somerset.

Young first decided to try a foray on the American circuit on a whim, saying he was "a muppet when I came here" in 2003. He told This Is Horse Racing's Sean Clancy that "if I never came here? I'd probably be riding hunters, maybe schooling bumpers, pair of welly boots on, with no hat cover, plodding around the fields, riding leg long, whatever. It was the best move I ever made."

He landed at Jack Fisher's barn in Maryland and never looked back.

"When I first came over, it was to have some fun, ride as an amateur, maybe ride the Hunt Cup and call it quits, that was it," Young told This Is Horse Racing. "Being champion jockey or anything like that was never there. I kept falling into good rides, it built more on luck than anything.

"Being in the right place and things opened. I owe Jack a lot, nobody else would have given me the opportunity he gave me, he gave a kid a chance."

Young's career took off; he rode for the sport's leading lights – Hall of Fame trainer Jonathan Sheppard, Sanna Neilson, Neil Morris, Doug Fout, wife Leslie and dozens of others that eventually led to five rider titles.

With a notably quiet manner with people as well as horses, Paddy became a popular fixture on the American jump scene, a skillful, soft-spoken rider. He seemed shy until he got to know you, friends say, but, eventually, the Irish craic would emerge. "He was always very witty, with a great sense of humor," recalls Brian Crowley, who rode the American circuit for several seasons and became one of Paddy's best friends in and out of season. "He was rarely in a bad (mood.) He was always positive."

Paddy Young racked up five National Steeplechase Association rider titles - 2009, 2010, 2011, 2013 and 2015. He was second twice. He was, in the words of fellow rider Willie McCarthy, "simply the best"

How'd we get here: Leslie Falini Young

Leslie, 49, was raised in West Chester, Pennsylvania. Father Dominick Falini and mother Peggy were both school teachers – her mother taught phys ed, her dad taught U.S. history. Both were avid riders, hunting with the old Brandywine Hounds (disbanded in 2003). Dominick rode in point-to-points, and both Falinis supported young Leslie's pony club, foxhunting and pony racing aspirations.

With the Cheshire Pony Club, Leslie won the Eastern Pennsylvania Region eventing rally – teaming with C3 contemporaries Braxton Jones and Catherine Fisher for team gold. She excelled at pony club games, and was nationally ranked in girls tetrathlon.

On the DelMarVa pony race circuit, she was "all out for blood" competing against the likes of Billy Meister, Ricky Hendriks and more. She was competitive and won with ponies small and large, claiming year-end titles with standout stars Winky, Phantom, Taboo and Jay.

She amped it up, working high school summers for Hall of Fame neighbor Jonathan Sheppard, and galloped for Jack Fisher on weekends while she was a student at Oldfields.

Horses weren't her only passion – Leslie excelled at lacrosse and field hockey, making All-Stars and All-American for both. And she figured she'd left the horse world behind, Leslie recalls, graduating Virginia's Lynchburg College in 1995 with a degree in health science and athletic training. She worked in physical therapy clinic outside Philly and coached the Cardinal O'Hara girls lacrosse team to a championship season.

Horses weren't part of the picture.

"So, I'm thinking horses are history, but then I went to the Brandywine Point-to-Point, and the party after, and realized how much I missed it," Leslie says with a laugh.

"I thought, 'ugh.'"

She got a job galloping for Sheppard, lived in the infamous 704 house, and dated then married jockey Roger Horgan in 2000. Leslie coached field hockey at Oldfields while Horgan worked for Tom Voss, and she got certified in equine massage, at last tying her degree to the horse world.

They based at Gulfstream Park with Sheppard in the winters, and Horgan worked for flat trainer Kenny McPeek.

"In all fairness, we got along great, but, God, you know that gypsy lifestyle is hard," Leslie says of their breakup a few years later, something she reflects, today, was inevitable. "We just had different ideas."

Leslie returned to Pennsylvania, "not really sure what" she'd do next. She became friends with Paddy Young, an Irish jump rider who'd joined the U.S. jockey colony in 2003. The match was great, their worlds and their personalities meshed, and the rest is history.

They married in 2007, the same year Leslie unexpectedly launched her training career. Son Rory was born in 2008, daughter Cece in 2009. Paddy's older son, Tom, also moved to the U.S.

Like so many things, the giant step from gallop girl to trainer began from a backstretch conversation. They were at Keeneland for the Royal Chase in April, 2007 (Paddy was sixth on Chivite for owner Calvin Houghland and trainer Bruce Miller.) Leslie ran into an old friend, Silverton Hill trainer Darrin Miller, on the backside. "He said he had a horse for me, out of conditions on the flat but he thought would go jumping."

She fasttracked her trainers' license and saddled her first runner – and winner, at Saratoga that summer. Silverton's Torlundy was her first stakes starter – and winner, in 2009, and the stats piled up from there.

In 2022, entering the final weekend of the steeplechase season, Young secured the training title. With only four opportunities remaining in the season, at Charleston, Young held an insurmountable 36 to 30 advantage over Keri Brion. Jack Fisher was in third, with 21 wins. It is Young's first title.

Syndicate Star

Leslie Young says she's worked every angle to bring new owners – and reboot old ones – into the steeplechase game.

Tom Collins' Ballybristol Farm got their first jumper in 2015, having met the Youngs when the Chicago businessman sponsored a race won by Irv Naylor's Jamarjo. Ballybristol's Andi'Amu was grade 1 stakes-placed over hurdles but really excelled when turned to timber in 2018. He won the 2019 NSA timber title, and wrapped up the 2022 title with a win in the International Gold Cup.

If bringing Ballybristol aboard as a brand new jump owner relied on an old-fashioned cold-call sales pitch, for the Leipers Fork syndicate, Leslie employed the tools of a Millennial.

"I knew of this horse (French-bred Querry Horse, running over fences in England) that I could get here for $25,000, door to door," she says. "I really wanted him, really liked the form. I thought, how to get some interest.

"So I just put it out there on Facebook, and just said, 'hey, great horse, who wants in.'"

Life Cycle

CARLY ABOTT

Farming of any type is a seasonal and cyclical pursuit. The years come and go; the seasons change; but the seasonal cycle of farm life changes little from year to year. Over the next year I hope to tell the story, in monthly chapters, of that cycle with anecdotes particular to life on a busy Thoroughbred breeding farm and sales agency and, thereby, recreate the life cycle on such a farm through the months of the year.

December is a quiet month on most farms. The yearlings have been sent off to be broken. The foals have settled into their new lives as weanlings and the mares have, it is hoped, dried up uneventfully from the separation from their foals.

With the end of the sales cycle, the departure of the colts and fillies to the training grounds, it is natural that December is the month when a farmer starts to think about next year. In the East, the first order of business after the December sale in Timonium is to do pregnancy checks on all the mares. If the mare has been declared not pregnant earlier in the year, this is a good time to double check the earlier diagnosis. December 1 is the date when most horsemen put empty mares under lights to encourage them to come into season as early as possible after the New Year. If, contrary to previous checks, the mare is, in fact, pregnant there's no need for the time, effort and expense to put her under lights.

Occasionally, a mare that has been declared pregnant during the breeding season will turn out, upon this December palpation, to have lost her pregnancy and, therefore, be a prime candidate for light therapy with the hope of catching her early in the following breeding season. You can imagine how negligent you feel and how embarrassing it is to have to call an owner to say that the mare that you have been foal-watching for the last month turns out to be empty and that you have wasted half of the breeding season waiting for the foal that never came.

Once the mares have all been checked they are divided up for the winter. The empty mares can go into one group since they will all be coming into the barn or shed to be exposed to light.

At our farm, the pregnant mares lived outside until they were about three weeks from foaling. If the group was so large that it needed to be divided, we would separate them by due dates, making sure that the last two mares in the early group had dates that are close enough to each other that they would come into the foaling barn at the same time. If you choose to divide them randomly, at some point in the spring, you will be able to combine the two shrinking bands to make one.

On the subject of light therapy, the experts will tell you to gradually increase the length of exposure to light, but Dixie and I found that leaving the lights on until 11 p.m. was just as effective and coincided nicely with night check. At 11, the mares can be turned out if that is convenient and it makes the stalls much easier to clean the next morning.

Once the weanlings and mares are settled in their groups, life becomes routine until the first foals are due in mid-January. With a few weeks until Christmas and the barns relatively empty this is the perfect time for barn maintenance. In December in the Mid-Atlantic there will be some days when it is warm enough to pressure wash stalls and aisles and this is the perfect time to inspect and repair stall walls, doors and floors. Once the weather turns frigid, nobody will be in the mood for carpentry.

December is also the time when many of our Hispanic employees need to travel home to renew their paperwork. This coincides nicely with the slower pace of the farm at that time. It is also a good time to express our appreciation for the work they do all year with a generous holiday bonus. We derive pleasure from living and working in beautiful surroundings; they are the ones who work beside us to support families that, in many cases, are thousands of miles away.

Raising your children on the farm, as we did, is a double-edged sword. What the children give up by not living in a walkable neighborhood is made up by the outdoor life and lessons in responsibility. One of those lessons should be that the care of the animals which provide our livelihood must always come first. On our farm, all employees got Christmas Day off and we created a tradition whereby the whole family took care of the horses before anyone got to celebrate the holiday. Feed, hay, water and treat–just minimal care is enough. At some ages there were moans and eyerolls but with time and maturity they came to love this tradition as the best part of Christmas.

The period between Christmas and New Year's is a dead spot in the equine calendar. There are no sales; there is little racing; and things are quiet on the farm. I always found this to be a perfect time to finalize matings and secure stallion seasons. Stallion managers are kind of like car salesmen at the end of the month–many are under pressure to fulfill quotas. I always found them very receptive to accepting mares and making deals on Boxing Day and the days that follow. It's also warmer in the office on the phone.

Around this time, I always created a spreadsheet listing the mare, covering stallion, last breeding date, projected due date and the following year's covering stallion. Having this list where everyone can see it and keeping it updated helps everyone on the farm know what to expect and keeps them invested in the process. A pool on which employee attends the most foalings helps morale as the season drags into May.

In my mind, December is the real start of the annual cycle of life on a Thoroughbred farm. It is a time to regroup, repair and refocus attention on the breeding and foaling season just beyond the horizon. ◆

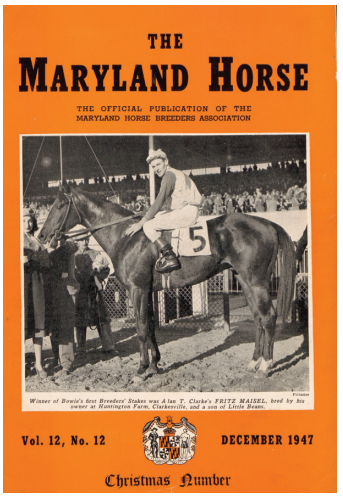
Looking Back



75 years ago

■ Bowie's meeting, which wound up the Maryland fall racing season, was marked by interesting stakes and the usual keen competition among the platers, as owners and trainers sought eagerly for purses to acquire shipping money south or enough to tide them over a winter of remaining on the farms.

The first running of the Breeders Stakes for 2-year-olds was one of the stakes offered and went to Alan T. Clarke's homebred Fritz Maisel. Foaled at Huntington Farm in Clarkesville, Md., Fritz Maisel was one of two foals in the first crop of Little Beans, who had left Maryland but returned to stand the 1948 season at Merryland Farm in Hyde.

■ Maryland comptroller James J. Lacy announced that state revenues from horse racing during 1947 totaled $5,095,324, up more than a half-million from the previous year. Pimlico bettors made the most generous contribution, with a total of $1,234,012. Laurel, Bowie and Havre de Grace also generated revenue over $1 million each.

■ Pimlico's fall racegoers were witness to feats of greatness. Calumet Farm's Citation clinched the 2-year-old championship with a triumph in the Pimlico Futurity for trainer Jimmy Jones. Alfred Vanderbilt, long prominent in affairs of Pimlico and Laurel, saw his colors carried first home in the Sagamore Stakes (with Newsweekly), a day after his *Halconero won the Exterminator Handicap.

Most astonishing of all was Mill Run Stable's Miss Grillo romping to a 40-length triumph in the Pimlico Cup, at 2½ miles the longest stakes race on the American turf calendar.

Trained by future Hall of Famer Horatio Luro, the 5-year-old Argentinian-bred Miss Grillo had been imported to the U.S. the previous year and proved a force at route races. In a span of less than four weeks in fall 1947, she covered nearly 8 miles in four starts (1⅝ miles, 1⅝ miles, 2 1/16 miles and 2½ miles). In addition to three Pimlico starts during the span, including a victory in the Governor Bowie, she ran third behind Stymie in the Gallant Fox Handicap at Jamaica.

■ After Matt Winn, head of Churchill Downs, set May 1, 1948, as the date for the Kentucky Derby, the date for the Preakness was set for May 15, two weeks after the Derby instead of just a week later, as it had been in years prior.

■ Names on the list of nearly 200 Maryland-bred winners from Sept. 1 through Oct. 31 included distaffers Be Faithful, a 5-year-old bred by Idle Hour Stock Farm Co., 4-year-old Celestial Blue (breeder Janon Fisher Jr.) and 3-year-old Legendra (breeder W.L. Brann). The 2-year-old colt Loser Weeper, a son of Discovery bred by A.G. Vanderbilt, won three times over the two months.

Multiple stakes winner Be Faithful and stakes-placed Legendra, both foaled at Glade Valley Farm near Frederick, were significant producers, the former as the granddam of Never Bend and Bold Reason, to name just a few; the latter as a foundation mare for Taylor Hardin's Newstead Farm and ancestress of Zenyatta. Celestial Blue was the dam of Preakness Stakes winner Bally Ache. And Loser Weeper went on to win 13 more times, nine stakes, and rank as one of the nation's top handicap horses of 1949 and 1950.

50 years ago

■ "Sir: I wish to support Mr. J. William Boniface's letter in your November issue proposing a Maryland Week with a 2-year-old sale preceding the Preakness. This is a fine idea," started a letter to the editor from Helen Tweedy (Penny Chenery) of Meadow Stable in Doswell, Va.

She continued:

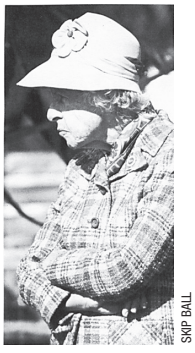
1. There are many national newsmen assigned to the Triple Crown races, as we discovered when we campaigned with Riva Ridge last spring. They are idle and looking for stories in between races. You could get coverage from non-horse publications as well.

2. Many out-of-state horsemen are in attendance in advance of the race and they would welcome the opportunity to visit a selection of breeding and training establishments.

3. The 2-year-old sale would have appeal to first-time buyers who don't know how to get a yearling broken, etc., and in the excitement of the Big Race, might be eager to buy a horse that is ready to go on the track. Thus we could get new customers into the breeding business.

"On another matter, I must say that I will miss your hunt meet and horse show section after it goes on its own. Although I'm only in Thoroughbred breeding and racing, I enjoy reading about other horse activities."

■ Marion duPont Scott stood in the paddock between her horses Soothsayer and Perigo while they were being saddled for the third running of the $100,000 Colonial Cup International Steeplechase. At age 82, she had poor eyesight and stooped as if the weight of the steeplechase world was on her shoulders.



SKIP BALL

"Without Mrs. Scott, the jumping game would probably be nothing more than record books and memories," noted writer Snowden Carter. The owner of the legendary Battleship, who campaigned 40 years earlier, witnessed Soothsayer and Joe Aitcheson take title to the Colonial Cup. As Scott crossed the turf to the winner's stand, Carter noted: "There were tears on her face, but they weren't all because of Soothsayer. Those tears went back to [rider] Carroll Bassett, Battleship, [her brother] William duPont Jr., and a thousand other friends who couldn't be there to share in one of the great sportslady's finest moments."

■ A world record price for a weanling was set at Keeneland when a filly by Northern Dancer out of the *Ambiorix mare Be Ambitious was bought by William S. Farish III for $87,000. She was consigned by her breeder, John R. Gaines's Gainesway Farm.

The filly's second dam was Maryland-bred stakes winner Be Faithful.

25 years ago

■ Maryland Million Day 1997 could have been called "The Edgar Prado Invitational" as the Maryland-based leading rider in the nation won three races on the card for the second year in a row, including the Classic aboard owner/breeder Barbara Graham's Algar, a son of Horatius (who with eight wins joined Deputed Testamony–with two winners on the card–as Maryland Million's top sire). It was Prado's 12th Million win, four ahead of any other rider.

■ A law enacted in the late 1980s prohibited Thoroughbred licensees from operating after 6:15 p.m. The intent was to leave the nights to the Standardbred tracks and the days to the Thoroughbreds.

When simulcasting first came to Maryland in 1993, any simulcasting from 6:15 until post time of the first harness race would only be permissible if all parties–tracks, horsemen and breeders–agreed to the terms. This led to Thoroughbred tracks operating the pari-mutuel system during the day until 7:15 and the Standardbred tracks operating the system afterward. Harness tracks, fearing the impact that late Thoroughbred races would have on business, insisted that fans wagering after 7:15 could only use tellerless terminals.

Editor Timothy Capps wrote, "Simulcasting is vital to the 1990s racing economy, and the industry's stakeholders would do well not to put their hard won gains at risk.

"In Maryland, this means abolishing the 6:15 law and establishing a revenue sharing system that recognizes market realities, not proprietary rights. All the ingredients are there to do so except vision and willingness to leave behind a past that bears little relation to the present."

■ Stuart Janney III was elected chairman of the Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders Association. At the time, he saw television as a way to transport horses back into the minds of Americans as part of a comprehensive plan to revitalize racing.

ARVICOM

Maryland-bred fillies took the top two spots in Philadelphia Park's Grade 2 Cotillion–Bill Backer's homebred Snit catching Katharine Merryman's homebred Proud Run late.

■ Three of the region's most accomplished 3-year-old fillies came within 3 lengths of each other at the finish of Philadelphia Park's premier event for fillies, the Grade 2 Cotillion Handicap. Victory went to Bill Backer's homebred Snit, three-quarters of a length ahead of Katharine Merryman's Proud Run, with Salt It, heroine of the Black-Eyed Susan Stakes-G2, another 2¼ lengths back in third.

10 years ago

■ The 27th edition of Maryland Million Day featured an 11-race card, 95 starters and $1,050,000 in purses. No runner received a bigger salute than Ben's Cat, who became the fourth horse to win a Maryland Million race three consecutive years when he zoomed home in the $100,000 Turf Sprint. This was also the 10th Maryland Million win as a trainer for King Leatherbury. Not Abroad brought Petro brothers–trainer Mike and rider Nick–into the winner's circle after winning the Classic.

■ Watching Lucy's Bob Boy demolish all contemporary state-breds through a five-race winning streak, trainer Sandra Dono decided it was time to take on something more challenging–the 26th West Virginia Breeders Classic. Lucy's Bob Boy emphatically justified that faith by charging home to an 8-length victory over Russell Road in the $500,000 event. Trainer John Casey's homebred Down Town Allen, a daughter of Windsor Castle, came home equally impressively in the $250,000 West Virginia Jefferson Security Bank Cavada Breeders Classic.

■ The Fasig-Tipton Midlantic fall yearling sale in Timonium produced gains in gross, average, and median as 326 yearlings sold for everything between $1,000 to $300,000. The sales topper was a gray/roan Virginia-bred Malibu Moon filly consigned by Audley Farm Equine, Charlton agent, and purchased by Ellen Charles.

■ Two Maryland Million Day winners returned for greater glory. Edwin Merryman's 3-year-old filly Jazzy Idea followed an Oaks victory to face tough competitors in the $150,000 Laurel Dash, mainly reigning Maryland-bred Horse of the Year Ben's Cat. But, with her five wins in 2012, turf and dirt versatility, and a Laurel Park course record, Jazzy Idea defeated the champ by three-quarters of a length in 1:07.29, lowering her own 6-furlong mark. Robert Gerczak's Maryland Million Sprint winner Action Andy battled Il Villano in a nailbiter to take the $350,000 Frank J. De Francis Memorial Dash by a nostril. Action Andy became the first Maryland-bred to win the De Francis Dash since Eclipse Award winner Smoke Glacken in 1997.

■ Among new regional stallions retired to stud were Redeemed, to Northview Stallion Station in Chesapeake City, Md., and Cal Nation, to Country Life Farm in Bel Air, Md.

JIM MCCUE

In a battle of turf sprint stars, 3-year-old filly Jazzy Idea (left) faced 6-year-old Ben's Cat in the Laurel Dash and got the best of the favorite while breaking her own course record.

Redeemed was the 2011 Virginia-bred Horse of the Year after a 3-year-old season in which he was first or second in all seven starts, four stakes, for Samantha Siegel's Jay Em Ess Stable. The multiple graded stakes-winning son of Include set a track record when winning Parx Racing's 1½-mile Greenwood Cup and retired with $832,140 earned in 13 starts.

Cal Nation had an impeccable pedigree, being a son of Distorted Humor out of the sire-producing family of Numbered Account.

Peace on Earth. Holly Beach Farm (Anne Arundel County near Annapolis, Md.) offered shelter and serenity for Thoroughbreds and people in 1940.

Photojournalist A. Aubrey Bodine, who worked at the Baltimore Sun for 50 years – from 1920 until his death in 1970 – captured many scenes of Maryland horses, farms and racing. He was regarded worldwide as one of the finest pictorialists of the 20th century. Mid-Atlantic Thoroughbred features his work in Past Time.

2023 Mid-Atlantic Stallion Directory

Pedigree page explanations

Included in this section are pedigrees and pertinent data on 55 Thoroughbred stallions standing at stud in the Mid-Atlantic region.

Statistics are accurate at least through Nov. 5, 2022. Statistics, as furnished by The Jockey Club Information Systems, Bloodstock Research Inc., Equibase and/or Daily Racing Form, include results from North America, England, Ireland, France, Italy and Japan. Foreign statistics for countries other than England, Ireland, France, Italy and Japan are included when available.

The Mid-Atlantic Thoroughbred has adopted the following criteria for stakes qualification:

1. Winners of all stakes appear in boldface capitals.

2. Horses finishing second or third in stakes appear in boldface upper and lower case letters.

3. Horses finishing second or third in graded stakes, as defined by International Cataloguing Standards, appear in bold face upper and lower case letters.

Abbreviations: ntr—new track record, ncr—new course record, nAr—new American record, nCr—new Canadian record, nwr—new world record. An "e" substituted for "n" means "equals."

In Stud Records, the name of the sire of the dam appears in parentheses following the name of the stakes horse.

In Male Lines and Stud Records, progeny are arranged in order by champions, Grade 1 winners then stakes winners by earnings.

NOTICE: The eligibility status of stallions nominated to national or state breeders' programs (Breeders' Cup, Maryland Million, etc.) is dependent on the nominators' compliance with conditions, rules and regulations of those programs.

Mid-Atlantic Thoroughbred cannot assume responsibility for nominators' compliance with these regulations. Mare owners are advised to confirm eligibility with the stallion owners.

DOSAGE

Dosage is explained as follows by Dr. Steve Roman, preeminent authority on the dosage system, a mathematical method of measuring a horse's inclination toward speed or stamina based on the chefs-de-race, or influential sires, in his pedigree.

" 'Chefs' are assigned to one or two of five aptitudinal groups (Brilliant, Intermediate, Classic, Solid and Professional) covering the spectrum (from left to right) of speed to endurance. We assign a total potential value of 16 points to each generation. Since there are, progressively, one, two, four and eight sires in the first four generations, 'chefs' which appear among these sires will contribute 16, 8, 4 and 2 points each as we work back. The points for all 'chefs' present are then tallied in the appropriate aptitude columns. 'Chefs' which confer two aptitudinal characteristics have their points split between the two aptitudes. In the end, the total points in each column produce the Dosage Profile, a series of five numbers which reflect the relative proportions of each of the five aptitudes in this order: Brilliant-Intermediate-Classic-Solid-Professional.

"The ratio of points in the speed wing (Brilliant points + Intermediate points + ½ the Classic points) to points in the stamina wing (½ the Classic points + Solid points + Professional points) is the Dosage Index. (Dividing the stamina points into the speed points.) This number is directly proportional to the speed in a pedigree and inversely proportional to the stamina. A DI of 1.00 indicates a perfect balance of the two.

"Consider the five aptitude groups as points spaced equally along a linear scale where Brilliant is assigned a value of +2.00, Intermediate is +1.00, Classic is 0.00, Solid is -1.00 and Professional is -2.00, the DP allows for the calculation of the Center of Distribution, that point along the scale corresponding to the total combined influence of all 'chefs' in the pedigree. Calculation of the CD is done by taking the sum of (twice the Brilliant points) + (Intermediate points) - (Solid points) - (twice the Professional points) and dividing that number by the total points in the DP. An exact balance of speed and stamina yields a CD of 0.00."

PEDIGREE CROSS INDEX

This Pedigree Cross Index allows a breeder to nick, inbreed or outcross his broodmares by easy reference. Indexed are the names of sires and dams included within the first three generations of all the stallions in the 2023 Stallion Directory.

Example: SECRETARIAT - Capo Bastone, Friesan Fire, Long River

In the above example, Secretariat appears in one of the first three generations of all the stallions listed after him.

Suppose a breeder has a mare that is a granddaughter of Mr. Prospector or has crosses of that sire in a mare's pedigree. He may want to breed her to a stallion with Northern Dancer blood to take advantage of the Northern Dancer—Mr. Prospector nick. By looking up "Northern Dancer" in this index, he can quickly see all the stallions in this register that have Northern Dancer appearing in one of the first three generations of their pedigrees.

If a breeder's mare is a granddaughter of Seattle Slew, he may wish to inbreed to that stallion and thereby get more of Seattle Slew's makeup in the foal. By checking "Seattle Slew" in the index, the breeder can readily find all the advertised stallions that have Seattle Slew in their pedigrees.

What if a breeder's mare is already inbred or linebred? She might have 2 or 3 crosses of Deputy Minister in her first four generations for example. The breeder may want to make sure the stallion he chooses for his mare has no Deputy Minister or no Deputy Minister up close in his pedigree. By looking up "Deputy Minister" in the index, he can readily see the stallions in this Stallion Register he should avoid for his mare.

The pedigree cross index was prepared by The Jockey Club Information Services.
